

BEFORE THE PENNSYLVANIA PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION

IN RE:           Application of Danach, LLC :           Docket No. A-2013-2391804

FIRST STATUS REPORT RE: DEFERRED DANACH LLC APPLICATION

On January 20, 2015 Judge Christopher Pell entered an order placing the above referenced application into a stay of further proceeding based on the request of the Applicant and the status of other Uber related Commission activity. As part of that order Judge Pell has requested that the Applicant provide a status report every sixty days until the matter is placed back on the dockets.

The Applicant reports as follows:

1. On January 29, 2015 after a recommended decision, a subsequent final decision from the Commission and the completion of a compliance plan, Rasier-PA LLC, a wholly owned Uber subsidiary was granted experimental authority by the Commission to operate in most of the counties of the Commonwealth including those sought by Danach LLC here
2. The operation of the experimental authority and its coordination with the compliance plan is still in the relatively beginning stages of operation
3. While it was anticipated that Legislation would be introduced earlier in the year it was delayed while issues related to service were addressed by various stakeholders and while the Legislature dealt with more pressing matters such as the budget of a new governor
4. It is now anticipated that legislation will be introduced in the beginning of May that will address this new authority and how it will operate under the regulations of the Commission
5. The development of this Legislation will govern how Danach LLC will operate in conjunction with this experimental authority or whether there will be a need for the authority at all
6. The Applicant still desires to obtain limousine authority with the Commission but seeks to continue the stay of proceedings until the Legislation is finalized and it is determined as to the necessity of service and eliminate any further time and expense that would be expended in litigating the Application at this time

7. The Applicant will continue to file additional status reports as order by Judge Pell until either terminating the Application or ordered differently.

Respectfully yours,

GALLAGHER & TURCHI PC
