To whom it my concern,

I put the P.U.C letter aside and forgot to get back to it.

I was having a hardship starting end of Aug.2014.My Dump Truck motor broke down. Which left me with no income coming in and had 2 mortgage payments I could not pay and was threaten forcloser.Had to search out agency's etc. for help. Very time consuming and frustrating. Finally found help and not in foreclosure.

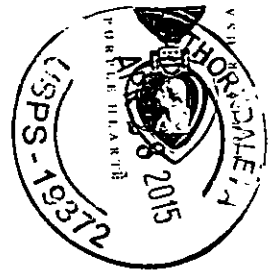

Then while this was going on my medical card for my Cdl also came up. Found out I needed a sleep test.Had no money for that. Had to try to get welfare insurance.Which finally received and toke the test just recently.

I am now in search for a motor to be put in and hoping to be back to work in the next month or 2.Then I will get my truck insurance reinstated.
