RE: Anthony Cortez V Peco energy Company

PUC Docket No ~~C-2414-2410180~~

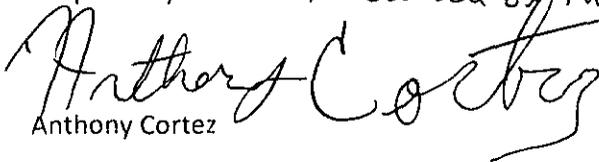

C-2014-2410180

Dear Secretary Chiavetta:

I have received information from PECO stating that they have filed an Exception to ALJ Heep's Initial decision. Per the information that I read from PECO it looks like they may have missed the dead line date to file this Exception, and based on this alone I feel that the ALJ Heep Decision should stand.

Mrs. Shawane Lee is stating in her Exception that I benefited from the Landlord tampering with the wiring which is a false statement. I didn't find out that the Landlord may have been tampering with the wiring until PECO turned off services and the Landlord services was also cut off, this is was the only way I was aware that I was of the matter. I feel that the Landlord should be responsible for the charges.

it is also note when PECO came out they had NO access to the garage, where there waic services in the garage also, which was only Respectfully Submitted, accessed by the Landlord.

Anthony Cortez
