To whom it may concern,

06/20/15

Enclosed is an addendum to the exceptions I sent out on 6/5/15. After being in contact with the Public Utility Commission, they notified me that as of May 2015 it is no longer a requirement to prove a "need for service" for a household goods moving license. As for the second exception "financial fitness standard" Conclusion of Law 10, I am adding a copy of my business accounts which also includes an additional 10,000 dollar credit line. I disagree with this Conclusion of Law 10 based on all of my available credit and my current financial ability to provide interstate service with my federal interstate license. I respectfully ask that the Public Utility Commission grant Michaels Moving & Storage a Pennsylvania license to move household goods based on the information provided.
