RE: Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission v. PPL Electric Utilities Corporation
PUC Docket Nos. R-00072155, R-00072155C0001 – C0014

Dear Ms. Hyman:

I am the administrative law judge assigned to conduct the proceeding listed above, and am charged with ensuring that the Commission's record is accurate. I reviewed the list of parties to the case, and your name has appeared on it. Unfortunately, we cannot find any underlying documentation to support your inclusion on the list. If you have filed a complaint against PPL's request for a rate increase, that complaint has been misplaced.

If you have filed a complaint and you wish to remain a party in this case, please let me know in writing by June 18, 2007. Kindly include another copy of your complaint, or if you do not have a copy, please send another.

If I have not heard from you by June 18, 2007, your name will be removed from the service list.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Very truly yours,

Susan D. Colwell

PPL Electric Utilities Corporation :

ORIGINAL

PECO ENERGY COMPANY'S PETITION TO INTERVENE

Introduction

Pursuant to 52 Pa. Code § 5.71, et seq., PECO Energy Company ("PECO") hereby files this Petition to Intervene in the above-captioned proceeding. In support of this Petition, PECO states as follows:

Background

1. By an Order entered May 30, 2007, the Commission allowed PPL Electric Utilities Corporation's ("PPL") Supplement No. 54 to its Tariff-Electric Pa. P.U.C. No. 201 to be suspended by operation of law effective June 1, 2007.<sup>1</sup>

2. PPL's tariff supplement proposed changes to its distribution rates calculated to produce approximately $83.6 million in additional annual revenues based on a future test year ending December 31, 2007. In the May 30 Order, the Commission allowed PPL's tariff supplement to be suspended pursuant to 66 Pa.C.S. § 1308(d) for an investigation of whether PPL's proposed rate changes are just and reasonable.

3. On May 31, 2007, Administrative Law Judge Susan Colwell held a Prehearing Conference in this matter to establish a schedule and procedures for this case. The ALJ's May

31 Scheduling Order sets forth the schedule and discovery and briefing requirements for this proceeding.<sup>2</sup>

4. Pursuant to the timetable adopted in the Scheduling Order, Public Input hearings are set for June 21 through June 29, 2007, Direct Testimony of parties other than PPL is due on July 6, Rebuttal is due on July 27, Surrebuttal is due on August 8, Evidentiary Hearings are scheduled for August 13 through August 17 (excluding August 15), and Main and Reply Briefs are due on September 5 and September 17th, respectively.

PECO's Eligibility to Intervene

5. Eligibility to intervene in Commission proceedings is governed by 52 Pa. Code § 5.71, et seq. Section 5.72 of the Pennsylvania Code provides that “[a] petition to intervene may be filed by a person claiming a right to intervene or an interest of such nature that intervention is necessary or appropriate to the administration of the statute under which the proceeding is brought[.]” Section 5.72 further provides that the right or interest may be one “which may be directly affected and which is not adequately represented by existing participants, and as to which petitioners may be bound by the action of the Commission in the proceeding.”

6. As a customer of PPL, PECO will be directly affected by any decision the Commission may reach in this case. No other party can adequately represent PECO's interests in this proceeding.

7. PECO is willing to accept the schedule and the discovery and briefing requirements set forth in the May 31 Scheduling Order.

8. Given that PECO is willing to accept these deadlines and requirements, and that responsive testimony has not yet been filed in this case, no party will be prejudiced by PECO's intervention.<sup>3</sup>

9. If PECO's Petition to Intervene is granted, PECO's counsel will file an entry of appearance in this proceeding in accordance with the Commission's regulations at 52 Pa. Code §§ 1.24-1.25.

10. In addition, if the petition is granted, PECO expects that it may participate in this proceeding through the submission of discovery, written briefs and other pleadings, and may also participate in this proceeding through the cross-examination of witnesses, if necessary.

Conclusion

WHEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing, PECO respectfully requests that the Presiding Officer enter an order granting PECO full status as an intervenor in this proceeding.

Respectfully submitted,

<sup>3</sup> Indeed, the Pennsylvania Code envisions that petitions to intervene may be filed up through the date of the evidentiary hearing, and even after the date of the evidentiary hearing in extraordinary circumstances. See 52 Pa. Code § 5.75 (d) ("petitions to intervene may be filed or will be acted upon during a hearing unless prohibited by the Commission or presiding officer") and 52 Pa. Code § 5.74 (c) ("intervention will not be permitted once an evidentiary hearing has concluded absent extraordinary circumstances").

Statement No. 6A

DOCKETED
OCT 24 2007

Supplemental Direct Testimony of Joseph M. Kleha

1 Supplemental Direct Testimony of Joseph M. Kleha

2 Q. Please state your name and business address.

3 A. Joseph M. Kleha, Two North Ninth Street, Allentown, Pennsylvania 18101.

4 Q. Have you previously submitted direct testimony in this proceeding?

5 A. Yes. I submitted my direct testimony, Statement No. 6, on March 29, 2007.

6 Q. What is the purpose of this supplemental direct testimony?

7 A. I am submitting this supplemental direct testimony to provide the results of an
8 alternative cost allocation (cost-of-service) study, designated as Exhibit JMK 2A,
9 which adjusts present rates to reflect a recently filed Settlement Agreement at 10 Docket No. R-00049255. PPL Electric is providing this alternative cost allocation
11 study so that other parties may consider it when preparing their proposals related 12 to the allocation of the rate increase in this proceeding.

13 Q. Please describe Exhibit JMK 2A.

14 A. Exhibit JMK 2A, like Exhibit JMK 2, presents fully distributed Pennsylvania 15 jurisdictional costs of providing distribution service to the various rate classes at 16 both present and proposed rates for the 12 months ending December 31, 2007.
17 However, Exhibit JMK 2A is adjusted to provide pro forma revenues by customer
18 rate class, at revised present rates, which assume Commission approval of the 19 Settlement Agreement at Docket No. R-00049255.

1 Q. Please provide the background of the proceeding that resulted in these revised
2 present rates.

3 A. On March 29, 2004, PPL Electric filed with the Commission a proposed general
4 rate increase of $164.4 million associated with its provision of distribution service
5 to customers. After full litigation, the Commission entered a final order on 6 December 22, 2004, which, among other things, approved an increase in rates
7 design to produce $137.1 million in additional operating revenues for distribution
8 service. Included in the approved increase was an allowance to recover certain 9 storm damage expenses associated with Hurricane Isabel.

10 Several parties filed appeals from the Commission's order. The Commonwealth
11 Court, in an order entered on August 4, 2006, reversed the Commission's storm
12 damage expense allowance for Hurricane Isabel, and vacated and remanded the 13 Commission's order regarding the allocation of increased revenues associated 14 with the provision of distribution service to customers.

15 Subsequently, the parties to the remand proceeding entered into a Settlement
16 Agreement, which was submitted to presiding Administrative Law Judge Colwell
17 on June 15, 2007. The parties to the Settlement Agreement have requested that 18 prospective Settlement rates become effective on August 1, 2007. The proposed 19 Settlement rates eliminate recovery of storm damage costs for Hurricane Isabel,
20 and reallocate the allowed increase in distribution rates from the Company's 21 2004 base rate case.

22 Q. Are the Settlement rates based upon any particular cost-of-service study?

1 A. No, they are not. The Settlement Agreement specifically provides that the
2 Settlement "does not reflect the adoption of any particular cost of service study."

3 Q. Please describe Exhibit JMK 2B.

4 A. Exhibit JMK 2B is a copy of Appendix F from the Settlement Agreement, which
5 sets forth Settlement distribution rates by customer rate class.

6 Q. Is PPL Electric proposing a revision to its proposed rates by customer rate class
7 in this proceeding?

8 A. Not at this time. First, the Settlement Agreement, although agreed to by the 9 parties, is still pending review by the presiding ALJ and the Commission.
10 Second, the Company is still reviewing the results of this alternative cost
11 allocation study to determine whether any changes to its proposed revenue
12 allocation in this proceeding are required. However, the Company wanted to 13 provide this additional information to the parties as soon as possible so that they 14 can consider it in developing their positions in this proceeding. To the extent that 15 the Company may choose to revise its proposed revenue allocations in this case,
16 it will do so in its rebuttal testimony.

17 Q. Did the Commonwealth Court's decision also address the allocation and recovery
18 of transmission service costs?

19 A. Yes, it did. However, the recovery of transmission service costs is provided for 20 through the Transmission Service Charge ("TSC"), which is not at issue in this 21 proceeding.

1 Q. Does this conclude your supplemental direct testimony?

2 A. Yes, it does.

COST ALLOCATION STUDY

FUTURE TEST YEAR ENDING DECEMBER 31, 2007

PREFACE

Cost allocation studies are submitted in support of the direct testimony of J. M. Kleha and in response to Question IV-E-1 of Exhibit Regs. § 53.53, Part IV-Rate Structure and Cost Allocation, regarding a fully distributed Cost-of-Service study. Exhibit JMK 2 presents results for the future test year ending December 31, 2007. A companion study, Exhibit JMK 1, presents results for the historic test year ended December 31, 2006. The Commission's Order at Docket No. R-80031114 provided that PPL Electric's future retail rate filings should be on a Pennsylvania jurisdictional basis only. The study contained herein provides the allocation of system costs between the Federal and Pennsylvania jurisdictions, and the allocation of the Pennsylvania jurisdictional costs to retail customer rate schedule classes.

This preface explains the general methodology utilized in the preparation of PPL Electric's study.

Total cost of providing service, broadly stated, is made up of the following generally recognized and accepted components:

1. Operation and maintenance expenses
2. Depreciation and amortization expenses associated with the investment in utility facilities
3. Taxes, including income taxes
4. Return on net investment in utility facilities, materials and supplies, and other working capital requirements, collectively called measures of value or rate base.

Through a cost allocation study, total Company costs are assigned to residential, commercial, industrial, and other identifiable customer groups. Comparing the costs to serve any customer group with that group's rate revenues provides a measure of the return realized from that group. Relating that realized return to the allocated rate base for the group results in the rate of return (expressed as a percentage), which can be compared with the system average rate of return and the rates of return realized from other classes of customers.

Overall costs of providing service are assigned to groups of customers on the basis of their distinctive service characteristics. One principal service characteristic is the voltage level at which the electric supply is rendered. PPL Electric's investment in utility property and the applicable operating costs must be broken down and reassembled into the following functional voltage level component categories:

1. High voltage transmission facilities which are necessary to serve all customer classes;
2. Transmission system (500 kV, 230 kV, 138 kV and 69 kV) facilities from which large power customers (Rate Schedules LP-5, LP-6, IST, LPEP, ISA and L5-S) and certain resale customers are directly served, and which also are necessary to serve all other classes at lower voltages;
3. Primary system (23 kV and 12 kV) facilities from which large general service customers (Rate Schedules LP-4 and ISP) and certain other resale customers are directly served, and which are necessary to serve other classes at lower voltages, but are not required to serve customers at transmission voltage levels; and
4. Secondary distribution system, encompassing the remainder of the system, from which street lighting, general service, commercial space heating, and residential customers are served, but is not required to serve customers served at higher voltage levels.

SYSTEM SUPPLY

PPL Electric's records are kept in accordance with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission's Uniform System of Accounts (US of A), which has been adopted by this Commission. The US of A does not identify the costs in precisely the functional category groupings required for allocation purposes. Thus, a substantial rearrangement of book data is required. Major examples of the steps in this process, which are fully detailed in Section A, are:

1. Separation of distribution facilities between the primary and secondary voltages, and the classification of the customer-related and demand-related components of secondary facilities' investment; and
2. Assignment of operation and maintenance expenses to categories comparable to plant investment assignments.

After reassembling the costs into the appropriate functional components, each customer group is allocated its share of the investment and operating costs of the applicable functional categories. For example, residential customers will be assigned some part of the costs of all categories, because all components of PPL Electric's transmission and distribution system are used to provide service to that group of customers.

The four basic classification criteria for determining the share of component costs chargeable to particular customer groups are:

- (1) Relative demand responsibility. A major factor governing the assignment of plant investment is the necessity to provide distribution capacity sufficient to be able to reliably meet the combined demands of all PPL Electric's customers. Investment and other costs considered demand-related are allocated on the basis of the pro rata demand responsibilities of the classes
- (2) Customer costs. A substantial portion of system costs is not related to the amount of service provided. Meter investment and meter reading costs are customer-related, as are customer account costs. In addition, a utility's investment in poles, line transformers, conductors, service drops, etc., must be made irrespective of the customer's demand, or simply because the customer is there to be served. Costs considered customer-related are allocated on the basis of the number of customers in each class.
- (3) Direct assignment. In a few cases, the US of A makes a specific identification of costs which permits assignment directly to the rate class or customer group responsible for those costs. An example is the direct assignment of street lighting-related costs to the street lighting customer group.

PPL Electric's primary (12 kV) and secondary voltage level demand-related costs are allocated by the relationship of a class's maximum annual non-coincident peak to the sum of the maximum annual non-coincident peaks of all classes sharing in such costs. This approach recognizes the diversity of demand at these levels.

The Company's cost allocation study contained herein begins with the functional categories of rate base, operating revenues, and operating expenses, as shown in Exhibit Future 1 or as developed in Section A of this exhibit. Two steps are required in the allocation process. The total electric system costs are allocated or directly assigned between FERC jurisdictional wholesale services and customers, and Pennsylvania retail service customers. The Pennsylvania jurisdictional values are allocated among the retail customer classes, and related to the present and proposed revenues from those classes to determine the class rates of return on rate base. Section III of this exhibit presents the process in detail for present rate levels.

SUMMARY OF COST ALLOCATION STUDY

PRESENT AND PROPOSED RATES

FUTURE TEST YEAR ENDING DECEMBER 31, 2007

The summaries contained in this section present the results of the detailed allocations of Pennsylvania jurisdictional costs at present and proposed rates for the historic test period contained in Sections III and IV. The summaries consist of an array of customer class income statements and the relationships of class operating incomes (or returns) to the respective allocated measures of value or rate base. The relationship of each class rate of return to the total Pennsylvania jurisdictional rate of return also is shown.

PPL Electric views these relationships to be useful because one of the objectives of ratemaking is to have each class producing a rate of return as close to the overall system average rate of return as appropriate. The summaries show that the proposed rate increases generally improve the relative positions of class rates of return.

Additional details are shown in Section III (Present Rates) and Section IV (Proposed Rates).

COST ALLOCATION STUDY – PRESENT RATES

FUTURE TEST YEAR ENDING DECEMBER 31, 2007

This section consists of two parts. Part I shows the assignment of the costs to Federal jurisdictional wholesale services and customers supplied on a system cost basis. Part II shows the allocations to retail rate classes of the Pennsylvania jurisdictional costs, comparisons with associated revenues, and a calculation of the resulting returns and rates of return on the allocated rate base. The outputs of Part 1 forms the inputs to Part 2. Allocators are summarized at the end of each part, as developed in Section B. Basic input cost data are provided from Exhibit Historic 1. Functionalized input data are developed in Section A.
