Rc: Phyllis E. Gibson v. Duquesne Light Company, Docket No. C-20055340
As we discussed, a fax addressed to "Public Utilities Commission" and bearing a notation on the bottom "Duquesne Light Co. Fax 412-393-1418" was received by Duquesne Light Company's Legal Unit fax machine this morning at 11:32. Because it did not include my name, it was not delivered to me and I was not aware of it prior to the hearing. Here is a copy of that fax. The fax indicates that an agreement was made; this is not completely accurate. Duquesne Light's Regulatory Analyst Marie Tamilia discussed payment agreements with Complainant twice in attempting to resolve this matter. However, Duquesne Light does not consider an agreement to be in place because Complainant failed to return an executed settlement agreement and failed to make payments in accordance with either the first agreement discussed or the modification of that agreement discussed more recently.

● Comments: Please cancel the hearing scheduled December 21, 2005 with Duquesne Light Company for the following reasons. I have also talked to the Attorney at Duquesne Light and they are in agreement with the cancellation.

1. An agreement has been made for payment of the bill and the bill will be paid according to the agreement.
2. I am not available at the selected time
3. If this cannot be done, the time selected must be on the date I am not scheduled to work.
