PREHEARING ORDER

The above captioned matter is scheduled for hearing on Thursday, January 4, 1996, in Philadelphia.

As an adversarial proceeding all parties, other than individuals representing themselves, must be represented by an attorney (i.e., corporations or partnerships).

Counsel for parties are reminded of the availability of the Commission's rules on discovery, found in Subchapter D, Chapter 5 of 52 Pa. Code, for learning the facts underlying each party's position on the pending application.

In order to facilitate the conduct of the hearing, on or before December 15, 1995, counsel for Applicant and for Protestants are directed to confer in person or by telephone to exchange the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of all witnesses they intend to have testify. In the course of conferring, counsel also shall informally request copies of any documents deemed relevant so that any such document(s) may be reviewed prior to, rather than during, the hearing. In the event objections are raised, I will be available during Commission office hours (8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.)

and on reasonable notice to confer by telephone conference call to resolve them.

Counsel for Applicant is directed to provide counsel for Protestants copies of all exhibits to be presented on behalf of Applicant's direct case on or before December 22, 1995. Counsel for Protestants are directed to provide counsel for Applicant copies of all exhibits to be presented on behalf of Protestants' direct case on or before December 28, 1995.

Counsel are reminded that documents to be offered into evidence at the hearing must be provided in sufficient copies to permit one (1) for the presiding officer, two (2) for the court reporter, and one (1) for every other party. Documents should be properly pre-marked for identification.

Counsel for Protestants should be prepared to begin presentation of Protestants' direct case immediately upon the conclusion of the presentation of Applicant's direct case.
