Dear Secretary Chiavetta,

I am very sorry I was not able to answer my phone on 10/29/2015. I became Homeless

On June 24, 2015 having to stay in a hotel room (which I could not afford) in Royersford, Pa.

I changed my address to that Hotel in Royersford. Since that event, I then was placed in another

Facility at 201 east High Street, #205, Phoenixville, Pa. 19460. This meant I again had to change my

Address through the Post Office AGAIN. Changing my address so many times has caused me

More distress than I can handle. I am overwhelmed. I also was admitted to the hospital with a flareup of a chronic illness that I have had all my life. The registered letter that you sent me on Nov. 17, 2015 was not recovered immediately.

Can you please give me further consideration so that I would be able to receive help with resolving my problems. I would like to find an attorney who would represent me through the senior citizen network in my area.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Lucy DiRemigio
