O R D E R

BY THE COMMISSION:

On March 8, 1990, Gabler Trucking, Inc. (Gabler), filed an application for emergency temporary authority (ETA), to operate the rights under the certificate issued to H.C. Gabler, Inc. (H.C. Gabler), at A-00083975. Gabler also filed corresponding applications for temporary authority and permanent authority. See 52 Pa. Code §§ 3.383 - 3.385 (regulations for ETA and TA applications).

By a Tentative Decision adopted April 5, 1990, and entered April 11, 1990, we denied Gabler's application for ETA. From our decision, Gabler filed exceptions which are the subject of this Order. After Gabler's exceptions were filed, we approved Gabler's application for permanent authority in the nature of a transfer of all of the operating rights of H.C. Gabler, Inc.

Since Gabler's application for permanent authority has been granted, Gabler's application for ETA and the exceptions filed in regard thereto, have become moot. By way of closing Gabler's ETA application file at A-00109226, we take the following action. We hereby dismiss Gabler's exceptions to our Tentative Decision of April 11, 1990, because the underlying application for ETA has been rendered moot; THEREFORE,

IT IS ORDERED: That the exceptions of Gabler Trucking, Inc., to the Commission's Tentative Decision at Docket No. A-00109226, are hereby dismissed as moot.

BY THE COMMISSION,

Jerry Rich
Secretary
