RE: Tonia' Scott v. FirstEnergy

Dear Secretary Rosemary Chiavetta,

Enclosed are letters faxed and emailed to the following agents and representatives, in which I requested FirstEnergy/ Met-Ed Company board membership as an Indigenous American Indian (Haudenosaunee Nation); thus in accordance to the United Nations 1962 General Assembly Resolution On Permanent Sovereignty Over Natural Resources and United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples. I have yet to hear feedback from both parties pertaining to my request; your assistance would be appreciated in obtaining the formalities for such board membership requirements. Faxed and confirmed from a 3rd party fax company:

Dear Douglas R. Myers,

My name is Tonia' Scott, I am a FULL BLOOD (not breed), "copper color" Haudenosaunee; begotten from a WOMAN and MAN with ancestral linkage to the North American continent. I am an Aboriginal/ Indigenous American Indian within the meaning of the description of the Draft Declaration of the Inter-American Declaration of the Rights of Indigenous Peoples at Article 1 Definition:

"In this Declaration Indigenous Peoples are those who embody historical continuity with societies which existed prior to the conquest and settlement of their territories by Europeans..."

According to the Congressional House Resolution 331; Congress has acknowledged that my direct "bloodline" ancestors (the Haudenosaunee Nation) developed the political system that formed the original thirteen colonies into one republic and that their principles were incorporated into the United States Constitution. The same United States Constitution that contracts the sovereignty of the American people with the United States Corporation and its colonists- agents, representatives and officers.

I am writing to request to become a board member of First Energy/ Met-Ed. I, Tonia Scott as an heir of the North American continent , Hartford-Connecticut Trust Co. v. Lawrence, 106 Conn. 178, 138 A. 159, 160. Colonial legislatures were divested of their legislative powers, and required to transfer jurisdiction and all powers over the cultural rights of indigenous and Aboriginal American Indian peoples to those peoples and prohibited from making any law that effects the rights of indigenous people to fully and effectively enjoy their right to self-determination in Article 6 of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples, Adopted by General Assembly resolution 1514 (XV) of 14 December 1960. to wit: "Any attempt aimed at the partial or total disruption of the national unity and the territorial integrity of a country is incompatible with the purposes and principles of the Charter of the United Nations."

In support of my affirmation to have direct involvement with my ancestral estate as a vocal board member, below are United Nation treaties with the United States Corporation.

The Constitution of the United States, Article. VI. - Debts, Supremacy, Oaths, Section 2

This Constitution, and the Laws of the United States which shall be made in Pursuance thereof; and all Treaties made, or which shall be made, under the Authority of the United States, shall be the supreme Law of the Land; and the Judges in every State shall be bound thereby, any Thing in the Constitution or Laws of any State to the Contrary notwithstanding.

1962 GENERAL ASSEMBLY RESOLUTION ON PERMANENT SOVEREIGNTY OVER NATURAL RESOURCES (GAR 1803) See Article 4 to wit: "Nationalization, expropriation or requisitioning shall be based on grounds or reasons of public utility, security or the national interest which are recognized as overriding purely individual or private interests, both domestic and foreign. In such cases the owner shall be paid appropriate compensation, in accordance with the rules in force in the State taking such measures in the exercise of its sovereignty and in accordance with international law."

United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, September 13, 2007:

"Considering also that treaties, agreements and other constructive arrangements, and the relationship they represent, are the basis for a strengthened partnership between indigenous peoples and States"

*Indigenous peoples HAVE THE RIGHT TO THE LANDS, territories and RESOURCES which they have traditionally owned, occupied or otherwise USED OR ACQUIRED- Article 26 (1)

*Indigenous peoples HAVE THE RIGHT TO OWN, USE, develop and control the LANDS, territories and RESOURCES that they possess by reason of traditional ownership or other traditional occupation or use. AS WELL AS THOSE WHICH THEY HAVE OTHERWISE ACQUIRED. - Article 26 (2)

Indigenous people have the right to redress, by means that can include restitution or, when this is not possible, just fair and equitable compensation for the lands, territories and resources which they have traditionally owned or otherwise occupied or used and which have been confiscated, taken, occupied used or damaged without their free, prior and informed consent.- Article 28 (1).

Unless otherwise freely agreed upon by the people concerned.
COMPENSATION SHALL TAKE THE FORM OF LANDS, TERRITORIES AND RESOURCES equal in quality, size and legal status or of monetary compensation or other appropriate redress- Article 28 (2).

Definition of key terms used in the United Nation Treaty Collection. The term "declaration" is used for various international instruments.

(a) A declaration can be a treaty in the proper sense. A significant example is the Joint Declaration between the United Kingdom and China on the Question of Hong Kong of 1984.

And since your company is a sub-corporation of the United States Corporation, all contracts are unilateral...

"The constitution of the United States, and acts of congress made in conformity to it the constitution of the state in which a corporation is located, and acts of the legislature, constitutionally made, together with the common-law as there accepted, are of superior force to any by-law; and such by-law, when contrary to either of them, is therefore void, whether the charter authorizes the making of such by-law or not; because no legislature can grant power larger than they themselves possess. 7 Cowen's R. 585; Id. 604 5 Cowen's R. 538. Vide, generally, Aug. on Corp. ch. 9; Willc. on Corp. ch. 2, s. 3; Bac. Ab. h. t.; 4 Vin. Ab. 301 Dane's Ab. Index, h. t., Com. Dig. h. t.; and Id. vol. viii. h. t."

The Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties requires that the United States of America fulfill its obligations incurred thereunder.

"The United States of America is a member of the United Nations, and is bound by the Charter of the United Nations to promote and protect the Rights of Indigenous Peoples."

"The Constitution of these United States is the Supreme Law of the Land. Any law, that is repugnant to the Constitution, is null and void of law." See Pennsylvania v. Nelson, 350 U.S. 497 (1956).

Since the heirs are the same as the ancestors, I wish to partake in the delegation of the natural resources of my ancestral estate. For further discussion, please contact me at the above address or 570-994-1931. Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,
