To Whom It May Concern

The Commission's licensing regulations at 52 Pa. Code §54.32(g) require that all electric generation suppliers who were granted "Interim Licenses" shall apply, by December 7, 1998, for a permanent license by updating its prior license application to include additional and updated information required by 52 Pa. Code §54.33. The purpose of this letter is to set forth the specific information required

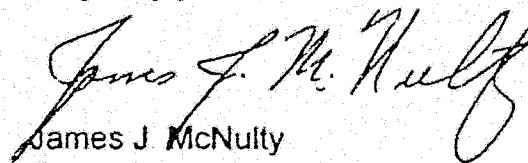

To update its license application, an interim licensee must submit a letter which includes the following

- (1) Any material changes in the information provided in the original application (e.g., material changes in original organizational structure);
- (2) Any material changes in the scope of operations, i.e., expansion of geographic area in which service will be provided, or addition of other customer classes to which service will be offered; and
- (3) Any change in the customer contact person.

Please note that the following are not required:

- (1) Filing of a new application;
- (2) Payment of a filing fee; and
- (3) Publication in newspapers, unless an expansion of service area is being proposed.

Re: FirstEnergy Services Corp.
Docket No. A-110078
Application for a Permanent Electric Generation Supply License

Dear Secretary McNulty:

This letter and the attached eight copies updates FirstEnergy Service Corp.'s ("FirstEnergy") application for an interim electric generator supply license submitted on June 10, 1998 in the above docket. The Commission's regulations at 52 Pa. Code §54.31, et seq., require EGS holders of interim EGS licenses to apply for permanent licenses by December 7, 1998. The information herein is submitted in accordance with the November 24, 1998 Secretarial Letter of the Commission.

FirstEnergy has reviewed its license application of June 10, 1998 in Docket A-110078 as well as the supplemental information submitted by FirstEnergy on June 24 and July 1, 1998. Its review has revealed that the information contained therein is complete and accurate and that no changes to the information other than the following are needed.

FirstEnergy's Customer contact person is:
