Dear Sir/Madam:

On June 22, 2005, an enforcement officer of the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission conducted a safety fitness review. As a result of that review, your compliance with the Commission's motor carrier safety requirements has been determined to be:

SATISFACTORY

A satisfactory review indicates that you have demonstrated at least a minimal compliance with this Commission's motor carrier safety regulations. The evaluation performed by this Commission is not a substitute for, or related in any way to, a rating issued by the Federal Highway Administration or any agency of another state.

If you have not already done so, to insure that all deficiencies identified on the Safety Fitness Review Recommendations page have been corrected, please send a letter outlining the measures taken to correct those deficiencies to the district office noted on that page. However, if no deficiencies are noted, no correspondence is required.

If you have any questions, please call this Commission's Motor Carrier Safety Office at (717) 772-2254.

Very truly yours,

James J. McNulty

CONTACTING THE PUC.

To Whom It May Concern:

The application cited above has been captioned as attached and will be published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin of March 11, 2006. The application will be submitted for review provided no protests are filed on or before April 3, 2006.

If protests are filed, the Commission encourages discussion between applicants and protestants to resolve possible conflicts. Upon receipt of a protest, it is appropriate for applicants and protestants to contact each other to open a dialogue.

If protests are not withdrawn within 21 days of the protest due date as indicated above, the application will be assigned to the Office of Administrative Law Judge. Parties might be given the opportunity to participate in a voluntary mediation process.

Should all efforts to resolve protests fail, the application will be assigned to an Administrative Law Judge for hearing. Parties to the application proceeding will be advised concerning the process set for their case.

Questions concerning publication and protests may be directed to the Transportation Application Specialist below by telephoning direct 717-787-2616
