PROTECTIVE ORDER

Before
Ember S. Jandebaur
Administrative Law Judge

DOCKETED
MAR 23 2005

On August 21, 2004, Jean Reese ("Complainant") filed the above-captioned Formal Complaint with the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission ("Commission") requesting that Verizon North Inc. ("Verizon North") be required to provide Extended Area Service (i.e., toll free calling) between Verizon North's New Tripoli exchange and the Ironton exchange served by Ironton Telephone Company. Ironton Telephone Company has been joined as an indispensable party to this proceeding. Verizon North, Complainant and Ironton Telephone Company are sometimes referred to herein as a "Party" or the "Parties."

In order to present its testimony and other advocacy in this matter, it will be necessary for Verizon North to provide certain information that it considers proprietary in nature ("Protected Information"). This Protected Information includes, among other things, (a) the number of access lines and customers in Verizon North's New Tripoli exchange; (b) toll traffic statistics for calling from the New Tripoli exchange to the Ironton exchange; and (c) the estimated costs to be incurred by Verizon North in order to provide the relief sought in this proceeding.

Verizon North has requested that the Protected Information be treated as "proprietary and confidential." Such treatment is justified because the Protected Information could be of value to a competitor of Verizon North and because disclosure of this information could cause the Company unfair economic or competitive damage. 52 Pa. Code §5.423. The requested limitations on the disclosure of the Protected Information will not frustrate the prompt, orderly and fair resolution of this proceeding.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. The Parties may not disclose to any other person, except to an attorney or consultant hired by that Party for purposes of this proceeding, information that relates to (a) the number of access lines and customers in Verizon North's New Tripoli exchange; (b) toll traffic statistics for calling from the New Tripoli exchange to the Ironton exchange, and (c) the estimated costs to be incurred by Verizon North in order to provide the relief sought in this proceeding.

2. The Protected Information may be used by the Parties only for the purpose of preparing for or presenting testimony at the evidentiary hearing to be held in this matter or for the purpose of preparing and presenting a brief, reply brief, exceptions or replies to exceptions in this proceeding.

3. The Parties, and any attorney or consultant retained by a Party, shall execute a letter confirming their understanding of the proprietary nature of the Protected Information and the restrictions on the use of such information. A copy of such a letter is attached to this Protective Order and is incorporated herein.

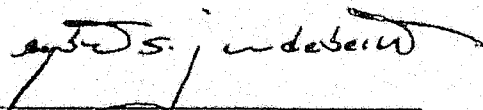

4. The Protected Information shall be sealed. Accordingly, should any portion of the Protected Information be made a part of the evidentiary record of this proceeding, such information shall be maintained by the Secretary's Bureau of the Commission in a "Report Folder" and not in the "Testimony Folder" for this proceeding.

5. To the extent that any of the Protected Information is used by the Parties, the presiding Administrative Law Judge, or the Commission in any transcript, written advocacy, Initial Decision, or final Opinion and Order, the legend "CONTAINS CONFIDENTIAL AND PROPRIETARY INFORMATION" shall appear on the cover page of any transcript, written advocacy, and on the first page of any Initial Decision or final Opinion and Order.

6. Any transcript, written advocacy, Initial Decision, or final Opinion and Order on which the legend "CONTAINS CONFIDENTIAL AND PROPRIETARY INFORMATION" appears, also shall be sealed and shall be treated by the Secretary's Bureau as part of the "Report Folder" of this proceeding.

7. A copy of this Protective Order shall be served upon the Parties and upon the Secretary's Bureau.
