In re: Marvin B. May v. PECO Energy Company
Docket No. C-20027424

DOCUMENT

Dear Ms. Sankar & Mr. May:

My office received and I recently reviewed a copy the transcript of the hearing in this case. I note that shortly after the hearing, I contacted Checkfree by email, and received the enclosed response. This is not in the record, so I reveal it to you as extra record information I have reviewed.

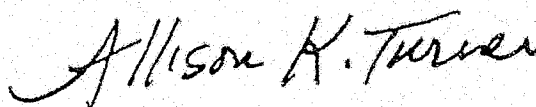

I noted on the appearance sheet as follows: "May need more information on PECO's internet payment plan" and "will close by Order". After my review of the transcript, I was not sure whether the parties were satisfied with the state of the record, or whether a further hearing would be needed.

Please notify me in writing within two weeks of the date of this letter whether or not either party requests a further hearing. If neither party requests a hearing, or I receive no response, I will proceed to close the record, and prepare an Initial Decision.

Thank you for writing.

The updated service requires that you be set up for E-Bills in order to schedule payments. The E-Bill service is able to be offered for no charge because the payees cover the cost of the service with the savings they receive by sending E-Bills. Most payees will no longer send paper bills, but some do and it is determined by each particular payee. You may want to contact your electric company directly to determine if they will send both paper and electronic bills.

Please let us know if you have any further questions. You may reach us by phone by calling 1-800-564-9184.

Thank you for using MyCheckFree.com. Please contact us with any further questions.

If I sign up for checkfree with my electric utility company, will I still get monthly bills in the mail from them?
