

BEFORE THE
PENNSYLVANIA PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION

PLEASE DOCKET

Daniel Franks

v.

T-Netix, Inc.

DOCUMENT
FOLDER

Docket Number

C-20030123

ORDER GRANTING ADMISSION PRO HAC VICE

On June 10, 2003, Enrico C. Soriano, Esquire, a member of the Bar of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, moved the admission Pro Hac Vice of Glenn B. Manishin and Andrea Pruitt Edmonds, Esquires, Kelley Drye & Warren LLP, 8000 Towers Crescent Drive, Suite 1200, Vienna, Virginia 22182, in the above-captioned case, pursuant to Pa.B.A.R. 301.

It is represented by Mr. Soriano that Mr. Manishin is a member in good standing of the Bar of the District of Columbia, the State of California and the Commonwealth of Virginia.

It is represented by Mr. Soriano that Ms. Edmonds is a member in good standing of the Bar of the District of Columbia and about to become a member of the Bar of Virginia.

The Motion for Admission Pro Hac Vice is unopposed.

DOCKETED

AUG 14 2003

THEREFORE,

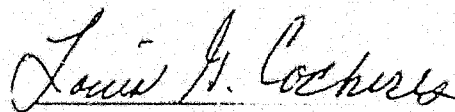

IT IS ORDERED:

1. That Glenn B. Manishin, Esquire, Kelley Dye & Warren LLP, 8000 Towers Crescent Drive, Suite 1200, Vienna, Virginia 22182, is admitted Pro Hac Vice in the above-captioned case, on behalf of T-Netix, Inc.

2. That Andrea Pruitt Edmonds, Esquire, Kelley Dye & Warren LLP, 8000 Towers Crescent Drive, Suite 1200, Vienna, Virginia 22182, is admitted Pro Hac Vice in the above-captioned case, on behalf of T-Netix, Inc.

3. That in accordance with the provisions of Pa.B.A.R. 301(a), Enrico C. Soriano, Esquire, shall remain attorney of record for T-Netix, Inc.

Date: July 28, 2003

Louis G. Cocheres
Administrative Law Judge