Linda A. Harris

v.

PECO Energy Company

DOCKETED

POSTHEARING ORDER

DOCUMENT FOLDER

On April 14, 2003, Linda A. Harris (Harris or Customer) filed this complaint against PECO Energy Company (PECO or Utility). She averred that she cannot pay $600.00 by April 10, 2003, and asks that the amount be broken down. She wants to have smaller monthly payments (including the $600.00) so that she can be able to take care of her husband who is disabled. She avers that he needs three machines.

On June 5, 2003, PECO filed its Answer to the complaint. PECO averred that at the time of the Answer, Harris's average monthly bill was $148.00, her calculated budget bill was $174.00, and her balance was $5,436.95. PECO also averred that Harris was enrolled in the CAP Rate program in on 10/22/98, and that at that time, the amount of $651.49 was set aside for possible future forgiveness. BCS issued a decision on informal complaint directing Harris to pay a lump sum amount of $600.00 and a special monthly budget amount of $136.00. PECO averred that Harris had not complied with that decision.

The hearing was convened on January 6, 2004 at 1:00 p. m. Harris appeared and testified. PECO was represented by counsel, Priya Sankar, Esq., who called one witness, Anthony Costello who testified and authenticated PECO's pre-filed exhibits, which were then admitted to the record. The hearing was not transcribed, but taped.

A portion of the hearing tape is not audible. Therefore, the hearing must be held again. This hearing should be held as soon as possible.

ORDER

1. A further hearing should be scheduled on this case as soon as possible.
2. Pending the further hearing, Linda A. Harris shall pay her current bills to PECO monthly as they fall due. If Harris does not pay according to this Order, she may be subject to actions by PECO as authorized by the Commission's regulations and the Commission's decision at Stammel v. PG Energy, a Division of Southern Union Co., Docket No. C-20027994 (Order entered 5/21/03), up to and including termination.
