PREHEARING ORDER

DOCKETED
FEB 07 2007

On December 15, 2006, I was assigned as the presiding officer in this case. The purpose of this order is to bring to the attention of the parties certain procedural rules that apply to the participants in this proceeding. This case is scheduled for a telephonic hearing on Thursday, February 15, 2007, at 10:00 a.m.

On November 13, 2006, the Complainant filed a complaint with the Commission against the Respondent. In the complaint, the Complainant alleged the following: that the Complainant did not request a third medical certification for her son; and that she did not communicate with the Respondent in July or August. The Complainant requested that the Respondent remove the third medical certification from her account.

On December 5, 2006, the Respondent filed an Answer. In its Answer, the Respondent denied that improperly placed the third medical certificate on the Complainant's account. The Respondent averred that it received the Complainant's first and second medical certifications on August 12, 2005 and October 25, 2005 respectively. The Respondent stated that it received the third medical certificate on August 4, 2006. The Respondent mailed correspondence to the Complainant on August 7, 2006 explaining that she had used her three medical certificates for the year and would be ineligible for further certificates until one year after her third certificate expired. The Respondent averred that the Complainant called on August 11, 2006 requesting a payment arrangement. Subsequently, she said that she did not ask the Respondent to send the third medical certificate to her doctor. The Respondent stated that the Complainant's current balance is $4,038.40. The Respondent referred to the Bureau of Consumer Services decision, dated September 27, 2006, which dismissed the informal complaint because the Complainant received medical certificates on August 12, 2005, October 25, 2005 and August 7, 2006.

The Complainant has the burden of proving that the allegations in the complaint are true. Section 332(a) of the Public Utility Code, 66 Pa. C.S. §332(a). The Complainant must pay the undisputed portion of the bill while this proceeding is pending.

If the Complainant has not made the payments that the Bureau of Consumer Services ("BCS") directed her to make, she must explain why the payments were not made. Failure to make regular budget payments as directed may result in an order requiring a lump sum payment equal to the amount of the budget payments that should have been made.

If the Complainant is alleging an inability to pay, during the hearing, she must be prepared to testify about the total gross monthly income of the household. A household includes all adults living at the service address and benefiting from the utility service. The "total gross monthly household income" includes but is not limited to the following:

- (a) income from salaries, wages, tips or other compensation;
- (b) pension, retirement or social security benefits;
- (c) Supplemental Security Income (SSI)
- (d) unemployment compensation benefits;
- (e) workers' compensation benefits;
- (f) alimony;
- (g) support;
- (h) public assistance, and
- (i) any other source(s) of income.

The Respondent must submit the relevant account statement and the relevant BCS decision.

If you wish to offer documents into evidence during the hearing (i.e. letters, bills, canceled checks, receipts, account statements, etc.), you should send three copies to me (a copy for the presiding officer and 2 copies for the Court Reporter) and send a copy to every other party in the case at least five days in advance. Please keep a copy for yourself. 52 Pa. Code §5.409. Please send my copies to 1302 Philadelphia State Office Building, Broad and Spring Garden Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19130.

Pursuant to 52 Pa. Code §1.15(b), requests for postponements or continuance of hearings must be submitted in writing no later than five (5) days prior to the hearing. Requests for postponement or continuance of hearings are to be sent to the presiding officer with copies to the Scheduling Office and the other party of record. The address for the Scheduling Office is P.O. Box 3265, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania 17105-3265.

All witnesses should be prepared to testify during the February 15, 2007 hearing. If the witness will be at a different telephone number, please notify my office at least five days in advance so that the necessary arrangements can be made.

If you will be at a different telephone number than the one listed on the hearing notice, please contact my office immediately. My telephone number is (215) 560-2105.

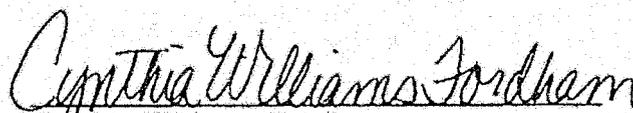

ORDER

THEREFORE,

IT IS ORDERED:
