AND NOW this 6th day of February, 2017, comes the Plaintiff, HOWARD WEIGHTMAN, by and through his Counsel of Record, JASON M. IMLER, ESQUIRE, of GRABILL & SEELYE, P.L.L.C., and presents to the Honorable Court this Petition to Request Extension of Time and in support thereof avers as follows:

1.

The Petitioner has received a completed version of the proposed settlement agreement and its attendant documents by email dated January 26, 2017.

2.

Unfortunately, when the documents were received by the Petitioner's office, he was in South Carolina with his wife for the funeral services and mourning of a close family member.

3.

Upon the Petitioner's return, his office scheduled an appointment with the Plaintiff in order to review these documents with the Plaintiff prior to signing them.

4.

The Plaintiff and the Petitioner were unable to meet until late last week to review the documents with the Plaintiff.

5.

The Plaintiff requested that he be able to review these documents at home prior to signing them and returning them to the Petitioner.

6.

The Plaintiff has contacted the Petitioner this morning and would like additional time so that he can address additional specific questions to the Petitioner about the settlement documents.

7.

The Petitioner has communicated with opposing counsel, Margaret Morris, Esquire, via email and opposing counsel has no objection to this request.

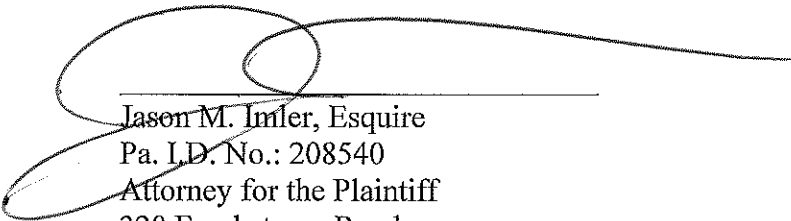

8.

The Petitioner requests an additional seven (7) days so that he may have sufficient time to address the Plaintiff's questions and any additional issues that may arise.

WHEREFORE, the Petitioner respectfully requests that the Honorable Court grant the Petitioner an additional seven (7) days to complete the Settlement Agreement and its attendant documents.

Respectfully Submitted:

GRABILL & SEELYE, P.L.L.C.
