RE: Norbert Sliwinski v. Duquesne Light Company
Docket No. C-2016-2559985

Dear Secretary Chiavetta:

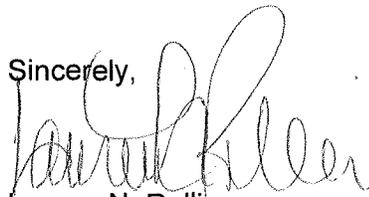

As you know, this firm represents Duquesne Light with respect to the above matter. Per your letter dated February 7, 2017, Duquesne Light's Reply to Complainant's Exceptions is due by Friday, February 17, 2017.

Duquesne Light respectfully requests a 30 day extension of time to file its Reply. This request comes in light of the recent Commonwealth Court decision in Romeo v. Public Utility Commission, No. 498 C.D. 2016, 2017 WL 510550 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2017) (decided on February 8, 2017). Duquesne Light would appreciate the additional time in order to properly review the Romeo decision and formulate an appropriate response to Mr. Sliwinski's claims in accordance therewith.

Mr. Sliwinski has given his consent to this request for additional time. Duquesne Light respectfully requests an additional 30 days to file its Reply or a period of time deemed appropriate by the Commission.

Thank you in advance for your time and consideration of this request.

Sincerely,

Lauren N. Rulli
Attorney for Duquesne Light Company
