CHAIRMAN'S OFFICE

Greetings to the woman: Gladys Brown,

i: woman; donna, of the family bervinchak, believe, Gladys, you are woman, who at times act as Chairman for the Pennsylvania Public Utilities Commission;

i, am not a complainant, i, am a woman making a claim;

i, wish and require you, Gladys, to correct your records;

i, claim S.M.A.R.T. METERS do harm and injury to i;

i, claim, the body of i, is the property of i;

i, claim the mind of i, is the property of i;

i, claim the home of i, is the property of i;

i, believe that government was instituted among man and woman, to protect the rights and property of man and woman, and to do no harm to man and woman;

i say, it does harm to i, to have the electricity turned off from the home of i; i, wish and require the current meter that is on the home of i, to remain on the home of i, and to retain the service of the electric company;

if a man or woman installs a S.M.A.R.T. Meter on the property of i, i, will consider it a trespass against i, i, say here, and will verify at open court under oath that all herein be true;
