RE: MBPR Partnership, LP v. Metropolitan Edison Company,
PaPUC Docket No. C-2017-2603201
MOTION TO JOIN AN INDISPENSABLE PARTY

Dear Secretary Chiavetta:

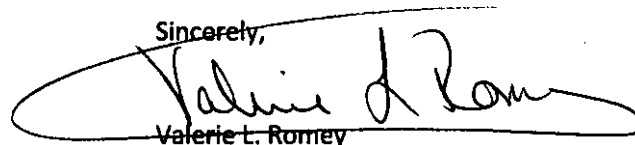

I recently received copies of several filings pertaining to the above reference case. I did not receive the paperwork until August 17, 2017. I do not understand why I am receiving this paperwork which was originally filed in April, 2017, and just receiving it in August, 2017. I do not know why I am being asked to join in this Motion and I am in no way financially able to retain an attorney to help me with this matter. I am trying to save money in order to move from the property that I currently rent from MBPR Partnership.

If I indeed need to be a part of this Motion, I am wondering if the PUC is able to provide counsel for me. If I am reading the caption correctly, I believe that this is truly a case between MBPR Partnership and Metropolitan Edison Company in which all previously filings state. Why after four months am I being asked to add my name to something that was started months ago without me?

If counsel can be provided for me from the PUC, please have them contact me. Otherwise, I believe that Attorney Cawley has made an error by asking me to join a Motion that was started months ago without me.

Any help that you can give me in clarifying this error would be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Valerie L. Romey

CC: Attorney James H. Cawley
