Re: Marlin Peters v. PPL Electric Utilities Corporation
Docket No. F-2017-2612900

Your Honor:

PPL Electric Utilities Corporation (“PPL Electric” or the “Company”) respectfully requests that the evidentiary hearing in the above-captioned matter, which is currently set to be held on October 12, 2017, be rescheduled for some time in January 2018. The Company is further evaluating the claims raised in Mr. Peters’s complaint and is seeking to retain an independent, outside expert to review the issues raised concerning PPL Electric’s smart meters. The continuance is beneficial to both parties, as it will provide additional time for the parties to evaluate the complex issues raised concerning the Company’s smart meters, prepare to present their cases, and potentially resolve the proceeding through settlement.

Pursuant to your Prehearing Order dated August 3, 2017, I spoke with Mr. Peters on September 18, 2017, and he agreed to rescheduling the hearing for some time in January 2018. Mr. Peters also sent me an email stating that he agrees to the hearing continuance.

In addition, PPL Electric respectfully requests that any due dates for exhibits, witness lists, and summaries of testimony be adjusted to reflect the new hearing date.

A copy of this letter is also being served on Mr. Peters, as indicated below, pursuant to the Prehearing Order.
