

This is a comment in favor of the more restrictive interpretation of Act 40, closing the borders of PA to any solar energy generator and not allowing any grandfathering of outside facilities or even of banked credits created by outside facilities. The General Assembly's intent of creating this part of the law was to only allow solar energy generators that are physically located with Pennsylvania's borders to sell credits to electricity companies within Pennsylvania. I believe the law should be interpreted as such.

William F. Delaney

132 Honeysuckle Lane

Windber, PA 15963