Re: Docket No. C-2017-2630406

Dear Judge Watson,

On Monday evening, January 22nd, I received in the mail a packet of interrogatories. I am signed up for electronic delivery, but they were never sent electronically.

The time in the mail cost me three days of response time.

I am not yet scheduled for a conference or a mediation and I am awaiting word as to when this meeting will take place and where. I live in Mercersburg and I would like to request the meeting take place in Harrisburg. This is still an hour and a half from my home but much closer than Pittsburgh.

Since we don't have this scheduled yet, may I ask to provide my interrogatories at the time of the scheduled meeting or shortly before?

Thank you for your time -
