2.1. a. Eligibility Criteria for Participation in the Program with Zero Income

OnTrack is now available to customers with zero income, as long as they submit a completed "Zero Income Form" which states how they are meeting their basic expenses. Customers submitting paper applications will receive the Zero Income Form from the OnTrack agency in their area. Customers submitting online applications will be able to provide this information as part of the online application when they enter zero for their income.

Zero income customers will be placed into a temporary program called OnTrack Lifestyle (explained in section 2.3), where they are required to provide updated income information after nine months. Zero income customers will receive an OnTrack amount based on the minimum payment option (section 4.2). The Company acknowledges that this will still exceed the Commission's maximum energy burden levels.
