Electronic Data Interchange and Internet Requirements

Any NGS suppliers and/or broker/marketers that wish to use the Electronic Data Interchange (EDI), in the NGDCs where its available, must meet the EDI certification requirements of the NGDC. Certification is a testing process using the Commission approved Internet protocol. To initiate this process, the NGS is encouraged to contact the NGDC as early as possible after filing an application for a license with the Commission, since certification may require as many as four months to complete and customer service contract dates may not commence prior to certification. NGDC requirements of new suppliers may be found on the respective NGDC home web page. Pennsylvania's industry stakeholder group the Electronic Data Exchange Working Group (EDEWG) develops and maintains the EDI transactions and related business practices, which are found on the Pa. PUC website at http://www.puc.pa.gov/filing_resources/issues_laws_regulations/electronic_data_exchange.aspx. The EDEWG meets telephonically the first Thursday of each month at 2:00pm ET to discuss EDI change control requests and other issues.

To keep current with Pennsylvania EDI practices and policies, a newly licensed NGS may choose to participate in the EDEWG by contacting the following:

Dear Kevin S. Lauterjung:

We are pleased that Community Energy Advisors, LLC has applied for a license to provide Natural Gas Broker/Marketer Services on the distribution system of Columbia Gas of Pennsylvania, Inc. ("Columbia Gas").

Under Paragraph 2.4.5 of the Rules Applicable to Distribution Service section of the Tariff of Columbia Gas, Community Energy Advisors, LLC could be required to provide to Columbia Gas a bond or other financial security instrument in an amount that Columbia Gas determines to be appropriate. Community Energy Advisors, LLC has indicated only brokering and consulting services will be provided. Therefore, we have determined at this time that Community Energy Advisors, LLC does not need a bond or other financial security requirement to provide broker natural gas services to Columbia Gas customers.

If the creditworthiness requirement or Columbia Gas' exposure to Community Energy Advisors, LLC changes in the future, Columbia Gas might deem it appropriate to require Community Energy Advisors, LLC to provide a bond or other financial security instrument.

Please feel free to contact me at 614-460-4712 should you have any questions regarding a bond or other financial security instrument requirements of Columbia Gas.

Sincerely,

Re: Security Requirement for Community Energy Advisors, LLC

Dear Kevin,

National Fuel Gas Distribution Corporation (“NFGDC”) is aware Community Energy Advisors, LLC (CEA) has filed an application with the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission to supply natural gas service to the public in Pennsylvania and specifically within the service territory of NFGDC.

As you know, in making such an application, CEA must furnish acceptable security to each utility where CEA will do business. As such, under its tariff, NFGDC could require CEA to provide a bond or other financial security instrument in an amount that NFGDC determines to be appropriate.

However, you have indicated, and it is NFGDC’s understanding that CEA intends only to provide natural gas aggregating, brokering and consulting services at this time. You have stated that, in performing these services, CEA will never take title to any delivered natural gas.

Based upon your representations, NFGDC has determined that, at this time, CEA does not need to post a bond or other form of security to operate in its service territory. However, if the services provided by CEA change in the future, NFGDC reserves the right to require security from CEA as it deems appropriate.

If you have any questions concerning the foregoing, please contact me at 716-857-7541.

Yours truly,

Nicole Baier

Re: Bonding Requirements

Dear Mr. Lauterjung:

PECO is aware that Community Energy Advisors, LLC has applied for a license to provide brokering and consulting services to commercial and industrial customers on the distribution system of PECO.

In making such an application Community Energy Advisors, LLC could be required to provide to PECO a bond or other acceptable financial security in an amount that PECO determines to be appropriate. Community Energy Advisors, LLC has indicated that it intends to provide only brokering and consulting services to commercial and industrial customers; will not take title to any delivered natural gas; nor will accept any customer payments or deposits. Therefore, PECO has determined at this time that Community Energy Advisors, LLC does not need a bond or other financial security requirement, since they are not directly engaging in business with PECO and only providing brokering or consulting services to PECO customers. However, if the services provided by Community Energy Advisors, LLC or the creditworthiness requirement for PECO's exposure to Community Energy Advisors, LLC changes in the future, PECO reserves the right to require Community Energy Advisors, LLC to provide a bond or other financial security instrument.

If you should have any questions regarding this matter, please contact Chris Sauerbaum at 215-841-6422 or myself at 215-841-6452.

Dear Mr. Lauterjung:

We are pleased that Community Energy Advisors, LLC has applied for a license to provide natural gas services on the Peoples Group of Companies. Specifically you have requested to be licensed as a supplier on the distribution systems of Peoples Natural Gas Company LLC, Peoples Natural Gas Company LLC – Equitable Division, and Peoples Gas Company LLC (formerly Peoples TWP) (“the Companies”).

Since Community Energy Advisors, LLC is not currently serving customers on the Peoples systems, we have determined at this time that Community Energy Advisors, LLC does not need a bond or other financial security requirement to provide these services to the Company’s customers.

If a Pool is established, and customers are enrolled which alters the creditworthiness requirement or the Company’s exposure to Community Energy Advisors, LLC provision of services on the Peoples’ system changes in the future, the Companies may deem it appropriate to require a bond or other financial instrument.

If you have any questions feel free to contact me at 412-208-6528 or by email at Lynda.W.Petrichevich@peoples-gas.com.

RE: Community Energy Advisors application to serve as a Natural Gas Broker

Dear Mr. Lauterjung,

Based on your assertion that Community Energy Advisors, ("COMMUNITY") is applying with the State of Pennsylvania to operate as a natural gas broker/marketer, UGI Utilities Inc. ("UGIU") has concluded that COMMUNITY will not need to post security with UGI-Central Penn Gas ("CPG"), UGI-Penn Natural Gas ("PNG") or UGI Utilities Gas Division ("UGI"). This is based on the declaration that COMMUNITY will not be taking title to gas or directly serving end use customers. This also assumes that COMMUNITY will be acting in conjunction with a licensed Natural Gas Supplier who has been approved by the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission to serve in the applicable UGIU service territories and who has posted the required financial security as specified in the respective UGIU tariffs. If COMMUNITY wishes to directly serve Choice customers in the service territories of UGI, PNG and/or CPG in the future as a natural gas supplier, it will have to post security as specified in the respective UGI tariffs prior to the commencement of the service.

Please feel free to contact me with any additional questions that you may have.

Dear Mr. Lauterjung:

We understand that Community Energy Advisors has applied with the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission to supply natural gas services to the public in Pennsylvania including our company's service area.

Because Community Energy Advisors intends to only provide natural gas aggregating, brokering and consulting services at this time, we have determined that Community Energy Advisors will not be required to post a bond or other form of financial security instrument to provide these services in our service area. However, if the services provided change in the future, we reserve the right to require security from Community Energy Advisors as deemed appropriate.

If you have any questions, please contact Jamie Levering at 570-888-9664.

Sincerely,

Edward E. Rogers

Experience

CEA has been in business for four years, and our team has many more years of experience. One of our company's co-founders and Principal, Rick Davidson, brings over 25 years of combined energy trading and retail marketing experience in the electricity and oil markets. Our other co-founder and Principal, Kevin Lauterjung, is a former US Army Corps of Engineers officer, and brings over 20 years of experience in finance and organizational leadership, leading the contract negotiations and network management division for a large, regional insurance company. Bios for the two principals are attached.

Davidson's extensive experience includes management, sales, trading, marketing, forecasting, budgeting and operations across multiple channels assuring regulatory compliance in the energy industry. Davidson began his career in the oil industry where he managed the distribution of crude oil to meet contractual obligations. Subsequently he spent over 10 years as a senior energy wholesale trader. Finally, he was responsible for leading strategy and creation of a new residential channel through direct marketing for a Competitive Electric Retail Supplier, geared to capture new business in the residential segments.

CEA has grown at a steady and healthy rate in its four years of operations. With a balance of businesses and clients across all sizes and complexities, from residential to small commercial to large industrial, CEA is poised and prepared to extend its operations in to Pennsylvania. Our Ohio license to broker natural gas in Ohio is attached.

Structure

CEA's staffing brings a diversity of experience. Our staff are all college degreed professionals, with educational and business backgrounds in finance, utility rates and marketing. CEA screens its employees well, performing multiple tests, reference checks, background checks and drug testing. Our staff are led by experienced and professional leaders, our two Principals, who bring over 50 years of combined management and executive level leadership – as well as energy and financial services experience. In addition to the two Principals, CEA employs 4.5 FTE's serving in the following roles: Operations manager, Energy market analyst, Large commercial account manager, Affinity program coordinator, Bill auditor and Data manager.

Plan

We are contracted with over 20 different certified retail electricity and natural gas suppliers, with approximately fourteen natural gas suppliers that currently are licensed and certified to provide services in Pennsylvania. We will continue to grow this capacity, as our corporate philosophy is to not represent a single or even a hand full of suppliers, but to represent our customers and their interests in the competitive retail marketplace.

CEA has developed a strong analytics capability to provide our customers with information to manage their utility costs and contracts well beyond standard broker services. Our analytics provides customers with insight on their utility bills that assist them in making operational and energy investment decisions. Our consulting services have prepared us to serve Pennsylvania businesses as well. We employ a bill audit expert that has provided utility bill auditing services in every state.

APPENDIX O
Technical Fitness

Our primary market entry and growth strategy in Pennsylvania is through affinity organizations. We provide energy management program services and electric and natural gas broker services to the two largest independent chamber of commerce associations in Ohio, and to two large statewide membership associations. We to reach out to such affinity organizations in Pennsylvania to understand their issues and opportunities and adapt our energy management program services to meet their needs.

N.Korea rejoices with a gala, not a missile

By Choe Sang-Hun
The New York Times

SEOUL, South Korea — North Korea marked its government's 69th anniversary not with another missile test, as many had feared, but with a gala party for the scientists involved in carrying out the country's most powerful nuclear test yet last week, the state-run news media reported on Sunday.

The country's leader, Kim Jong-un, celebrated the national holiday on Saturday by bringing his nuclear scientists and engineers to Pyongyang, the capital, and holding a banquet.

On their way from the country's underground nuclear test site in northeast North Korea to Pyongyang, the technicians had been cheered by people who poured out to see them passing by, the country's official Korean Central News Agency reported.

North Korea described the test, on Sept. 3, as the detonation of a hydrogen bomb that could be delivered on a missile. Mr. Kim's government called it "a merciless sledgehammer blow to the U.S. imperialists."

Outside officials and analysts had feared that the country would commemorate the birthday of its government on Saturday by conducting another weapons test, possibly launching another intercontinental ballistic missile.

South Korean officials predicted that such a missile test was almost certain to happen soon, particularly given the tougher sanctions being considered by the United Nations Security Council. On Friday, Washington called for the council to vote on a draft resolution Monday that would impose new sanctions on North Korea for its latest nuclear test.

During the banquet on Saturday, Mr. Kim spurred his engineers to make "redoubled efforts, not slackening the spirit displayed by them in bringing the great auspicious event of the national history," the North Korean news agency said.

North Korea launched two ICBMs in July, the last of which demonstrated the potential of reaching the mainland United States.

But North Korea has yet to demonstrate that its warhead would not burn up while re-entering the atmosphere or that it could hit a target with reasonable accuracy. The county would probably focus on mastering such technologies in future tests.

A man recovers bricks from a building destroyed in Thursday's magnitude 8.1 earthquake, in Union Hidalgo, Oaxaca state, Mexico, on Sunday.

Aftershocks rock Mexico, death toll rises to at least 90

By Christopher Sherman
Associated Press

JUCHITAN, Mexico — Life for many has moved outdoors in the quake-shocked city of Juchitan, where a third of the homes are reported uninhabitable and repeated aftershocks have scared people away from many structures still standing.

The city on Sunday was littered with rubble from Thursday night's magnitude 8.1 earthquake, which killed at least 90 people across southern Mexico — at least three dozen of them in Juchitan itself.

Officials in Oaxaca and Chiapas states said thousands of houses and hundreds of schools had been damaged or destroyed. Hundreds of thousands of people were reported to be without water service.

Many people continued to sleep outside, fearful of more collapses, as strong aftershocks continued to rattle the town, including a magnitude 5.2 jolt early Sunday.

Some Juchitecos seeking solace trekked through the destruction to find an open-air Mass on Sunday since many of the churches were either damaged or left vacant until they could be checked.

Along a street lined with obliterated homes, the Rev. Ranulfo Pacheco delivered a homily to a couple dozen people on wooden pews that had been toted into the patio in front of his gray concrete Our Lord of Esquipulas church. He said many were fearful of celebrating inside the structure, which from the street seemed undamaged.

Local officials said they had counted nearly 800 aftershocks of all sizes since the big quake, and the U.S. Geological Survey counted nearly 60 with a magnitude of 4.5 or greater.

Oaxaca Gov. Alejandro Murat said Sunday that the death toll in his state had risen to 71, while officials have reported 19 killed in Chiapas and Tabasco states.

Juchitan's downtown streets grew increasingly congested Sunday with dump trucks and heavy equipment to haul away debris. Smaller piles of debris were pushed into larger mountains of rubble reminiscent of the cleanup after a blizzard.

Teams of soldiers and federal police armed with shovels and sledgehammers fanned out across neighborhoods to help demolish damaged buildings.

Other groups distributed boxes of food. But help was slower to arrive in Union Hidalgo, a town of about 20,000 people about 30 minutes to the east.

Collapsed homes pocked neighborhoods there, and the town lacked electricity, water and cellphone service.

Delia Cruz Valencia stood in a puddle-filled street overseeing demolition of what remained of her sister's house next door. Her sister took their mother for medical treatment outside the city before the earthquake and had not been able to make her way back. Men with pry bars ripped away the bottom half of a brick and stucco exterior wall to rescue a large wooden wardrobe because the house was too unstable to access through the door.

Ms. Cruz said she was next door with her two daughters when the earthquake struck shortly before midnight Thursday.

"We all three hugged, but even so we were moving. We were pushed from here to there" by the rolling earth, she said.

Back in Juchitan, the general hospital has settled into a temporary home at a school gymnasium, with gurneys parked atop the basketball court.

Mexico's education secretary announced that schools will remain closed Monday in Oaxaca and Chiapas.

The hospital's regular building was damaged. Maria Teresa Sales Alvarez said it was "chaos" when the earthquake struck the single-story building, but staff moved patients outside and transferred most of those who required specialized care to other facilities.

World briefs

Pope urges Colombians to reconcile

Compiled from news services

CARTAGENA, Colombia — Pope Francis wrapped up his Colombia trip Sunday by honoring a fellow Jesuit who ministered to African slaves and urging Colombians to follow his lead in working for a more peaceful future.

Pope Francis' visit to Cartagena got off to a rocky start when he bonked his head on his popemobile when it stopped short amid swarms of well-wishers. Pope Francis, who had only a hip-high bar to hold onto, lost his balance and suffered a bruised, black left eye and a cut on his eyebrow that dripped blood onto his white cassock.

The highlight of the day was a very personal stop for the Jesuit pope: He prayed at the tomb of St. Peter Claver, the 17th-century missionary who ministered to hundreds of thousands of African slaves who were brought through Cartagena's port during Spanish colonial times to be sold.

Pope Francis, known for his own simple and austere style, said Claver was "austere and charitable to the point of heroism."

Indonesia confronts China

JAKARTA, Indonesia — When Indonesia recently, and quite publicly, renamed the northernmost waters of its exclusive economic zone in the South China Sea despite China's claims to the area, Beijing quickly dismissed the move as "meaningless." It is proving to be anything but.

Indonesia's increasingly aggressive posture in the region, including a military buildup in its nearby Natuna Islands and the planned deployment of naval warships, comes as other nations are being more accommodating to China's broad territorial claims in the South China Sea.

The two countries had three maritime skirmishes in 2016 involving warning shots, including one in which Indonesian warships seized a Chinese fishing boat and its crew.

Indonesia is challenging China, one of its biggest investors and trading partners, as it seeks to assert control over a waterway that has abundant resources, particularly oil and natural gas reserves and fish stocks.

Military land mines

COX'S BAZAR, Bangladesh — Myanmar's military has been accused of planting land mines in the path of Rohingya Muslims fleeing violence in its western Rakhine state, with Amnesty International reporting two people wounded Sunday.

Refugee accounts of the latest spasm of violence in Rakhine have typically described shootings by soldiers and arson attacks on villages. But there are at least several cases that point to anti-personnel land mines or other explosives as the cause of injuries on the border with Bangladesh, where 300,000 Rohingya have fled in the past two weeks.

AP reporters on the Bangladesh side of the border on Monday saw an elderly woman with devastating leg wounds: one leg with the calf apparently blown off and the other also badly injured. Relatives said she had stepped on a land mine.

Man turns himself in

SAO PAULO — The former chairman of the world's largest meatpacker, whose testimony implicated Brazil's president in corruption, turned himself in to police Sunday after the country's Supreme Court ordered his arrest.

Joesley Batista has avoided prosecution under a plea bargain deal in which he described how meatpacking giant JBS had bribed dozens of politicians, including President Michel Temer.

Mr. Temer denies wrongdoing, and Congress voted in August that he would not stand trial on the charge while in office.

Subject: Revenue ID number

Mr. Russo,

I am a CPA in OH working with an LLC which is taxed as a partnership currently. The company is a utility broker who is registering with Jeff McCracken of the Bureau of Technical Utility Services PA PUC. Mr. McCracken is looking for a Revenue ID number for my client. Mr. McCracken referred me to you. My client registered with the PA Secretary of State in 8/2017. I called the PA tax department that sent me a worksheet which outlines to me that my client does not need a Revenue ID number. Am I correct with my assumption?

Thank you for your assistance.
