Maria Povacz v. PECO Energy Company,*
Case No. C-2015-2475023

Dear Secretary Chiavetta:

I am in receipt of the Initial Decisions in the three above referenced cases. The cover letter indicates that Exceptions may be filed within twenty days of the date of the letter. I had previously requested, and was granted, a thirty-day extension to file Exceptions. Unfortunately, due to the recent and untimely passing of a member of our firm I will be unable to timely file my clients' Exceptions by the April 30, 2018, deadline. I am respectfully asking Your Honor for an additional two weeks to file Exceptions on behalf of all three Plaintiffs. The requested new filing deadline would be May 14, 2018.

I have conferred with opposing counsel, Ward Smith, and he does not oppose a two week extension. In addition, I would respectfully request that Mr. Smith be afforded an additional two weeks to file any reply.

Please let me know if you need anything further.

Respectfully,

STEVE HARVEY LAW LLC
