INITIAL DECISION

Before

Special Agent

INTRODUCTION

This Initial Decision dismisses the Complaint because the Complainant failed to appear for the telephonic hearing to prosecute her Complaint.

HISTORY OF THE PROCEEDING

On April 12, 2018, Jameeah Cherry (Complainant) filed a Formal Complaint with the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission (Commission) against PECO Energy Company (Respondent or PECO). The Complainant stated that the utility is threatening to shut off her service or has already shut off her service, and that she would like a payment agreement.

The Respondent filed an Answer on May 2, 2018. The Respondent alleged that the Complainant is not entitled to a payment agreement because the Complainant's balance is comprised entirely of Customer Assistance Program (CAP) arrears and the Commission has no jurisdiction to give the Complainant a payment agreement on the CAP arrearage pursuant to 66

Pa.C.S. § 1405(c). The Answer requested that the Commission deny the Complainant's Complaint.

Both parties in this matter have selected to accept electronic service in this Commission proceeding. By selecting electronic service (eService), the parties have agreed that being provided a notification of the filings as well as a link to the filings in this proceeding via electronic mail shall constitute valid legal service in lieu of service through first class mail. Therefore, all documents in this proceeding were served electronically instead of by first class mail.<sup>1</sup>

By Hearing Notice served upon the parties on May 7, 2018, the Commission scheduled this matter for a call-in telephonic hearing on Friday, June 8, 2018, at 10:00 a.m. and assigned the case to me.

I issued a Prehearing Order, served upon the parties on May 9, 2018, addressing, inter alia, the method by which the parties could call-in to participate in the hearing, the procedures applicable to the hearing, and the method by which a party could request a change of the scheduled hearing date if the date was not convenient for them.

I conducted the telephonic hearing as scheduled on June 8, 2018. The Complainant was not present on the telephone conference line at 10:00 a.m. The start of the hearing was delayed until approximately 10:16 a.m. to provide the Complainant with additional time to call-in to participate. The Complainant did not call-in to the hearing to participate. Attorney Shawane Lee was present at the hearing on behalf of the Respondent. No communication had been made to the Office of Administrative Law Judge on the Complainant's behalf explaining her absence.

<sup>1</sup> 52 Pa. Code § 1.53(b)(3) states that, "Service may be made electronically to filing users who have agreed to receive electronic service. Filing users will be sent an electronic mail notice informing them that a document was posted on the Commission's electronic filing system and providing a link to the document on the same day the document is posted."

No witnesses were presented, and no exhibits were introduced for the record. Attorney Lee moved for the Complaint to be dismissed with prejudice for lack of prosecution.

The record<sup>2</sup> closed on June 8, 2018, following the conclusion of the telephonic hearing. For the reasons discussed below, the Motion of PECO will be granted and the Complaint will be dismissed with prejudice.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The Complainant is Jameeah Cherry.
2. The Respondent is PECO Energy Company.
3. Both parties in this matter have selected to accept electronic service in this Commission proceeding. By selecting electronic service (eService), the parties have agreed that being provided a notification of the filings as well as a link to the filings in this proceeding via electronic mail shall constitute valid legal service in lieu of service through first class mail. Therefore, all documents in this proceeding were served electronically instead of by first class mail.
4. By Hearing Notice, a hearing in this matter was scheduled for June 8, 2018, at 10:00 a.m.

6. By Prehearing Order, the parties were provided with the method by which a party could request a continuance of the hearing date, if needed.

7. The Audit History of the Commission's docketing system for this case indicates that the Commission served the Prehearing Order on the Complainant and the Respondent electronically on May 9, 2018.

8. The Audit History of the Commission's docketing system for this case contains no notification that either the Hearing Notice or the Prehearing Order failed to be delivered electronically at the e-mail address provided by the Complainant.

9. The Complainant did not appear for the June 8, 2018 hearing.

10. The Complainant did not withdraw or settle her Complaint against PECO, nor did she request a continuance of the hearing.

DISCUSSION

Section 332(a) of the Public Utility Code provides that the party seeking relief from the Commission has the burden of proof. 66 Pa.C.S. § 332(a). To satisfy this burden, the Complainant must show that the named utility is responsible or accountable for the problem described in the Complaint. Patterson v. Bell Telephone Co. of Pa., 72 Pa. PUC 196 (1990); Feinstein v. Philadelphia Suburban Water Co., 50 Pa. PUC 300 (1976). This must be shown by a preponderance of the evidence, that is, by presenting evidence more convincing, by even the smallest amount, than that presented by the other party. Samuel J. Lansberry, Inc. v. Pa. Pub. Util. Comm'n, 578 A.2d 600 (Pa.Cmwlt. 1990), alloc. den., 602 A.2d 863 (Pa. 1992); Se-Ling Hosiery v. Margulies, 70 A.2d 854 (Pa. 1950).

In this proceeding, Ms. Cherry filed a Complaint against PECO seeking legal relief in the form of a payment agreement. As a result, the burden of proof is on Ms. Cherry to show that she is entitled to a payment agreement.

Administrative agencies, like the Public Utility Commission, are required to provide due process to the parties appearing before them. This requirement is satisfied when the parties are afforded notice and the opportunity to appear and be heard. Schneider v. Pa. Pub. Util. Comm'n, 479 A.2d 10 (Pa.Cmwlth. 1984).

Ms. Cherry did not participate in the June 8, 2018 hearing. The date and time of the hearing were provided in the Hearing Notice and the Prehearing Order. The method by which Ms. Cherry could call-in to the hearing to participate in the hearing was provided in the Notice and Order. Furthermore, both the Notice and Order warned Ms. Cherry of the potential consequences that could result from choosing to not participate in the scheduled hearing, including dismissal of the Complaint.

The Hearing Notice and the Prehearing Order were served electronically on the Complainant in accordance with her selection to receive electronic service of all documents instead of receiving a paper copy in the mail. Eservice, in lieu of paper service, constitutes valid legal service. 52 Pa. Code § 1.53(b)(3). According to the Audit History of the Commission's docketing system for this case, the Commission served the Hearing Notice on the Complainant on May 7, 2018. According to the Audit History of the Commission's docketing system for this case the Commission served the Prehearing Order on the Complainant on May 9, 2018. The Audit History of the Commission's docketing system for this case contains no notification that either the Hearing Notice or the Prehearing Order failed to be delivered electronically at the e-mail address provided by the Complainant. Therefore, the Complainant is deemed to have received these documents and had sufficient notice of the day, date and time of the scheduled hearing. Andrea Morella v. PECO Energy Company, Docket No. C-2016-2553416 (Opinion and Order entered November 16, 2016); Bruce Zirkel v. Philadelphia Gas Works, Docket No. C-2016-2561176 (Opinion and Order entered January 27, 2017). The Complainant's failure to appear is unexcused. The Complainant made no attempt to notify the presiding officer that she did not plan to participate in the scheduled June 8, 2018, hearing.

Under these circumstances, the Complainant had ample opportunity to appear and be heard in this proceeding but chose not to do so. Once notice of a hearing and the opportunity to be heard have been provided to the parties, it is the responsibility of both parties to appear and participate in the hearing. The due process rights of the Complainant have been fully protected. Sentner v. Bell Tel. Co. of Pa., Docket No. F-00161106 (Opinion and Order entered October 25, 1993). The Complainant did not appear, and the hearing proceeded in her absence. 66 Pa.C.S.A. § 332(f) and 52 Pa.Code § 5.245(a) provide that a party that fails to be represented at a scheduled hearing shall waive the opportunity to participate in the hearing.

(f) Actions of parties and counsel.--Any party who shall fail to be represented at a scheduled conference or hearing after being duly notified thereof, shall be deemed to have waived the opportunity to participate in such conference or hearing, and shall not be permitted thereafter to reopen the disposition of any matter accomplished thereat, or to recall for further examination of witnesses who were excused, unless the presiding officer shall determine that failure to be represented was unavoidable and that the interests of the other parties and the public would not be prejudiced by permitting such reopening or further examination. . . .

66 Pa.C.S.A. § 332(f).

(a) After being notified, a party who fails to be represented at a scheduled conference or hearing in a proceeding will:

(1) Be deemed to have waived the opportunity to participate in the conference or hearing.

(2) Not be permitted thereafter to reopen the disposition of a matter accomplished at the conference or hearing.

52 Pa. Code § 5.245(a).

As stated, the Complainant bears the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that she is entitled to relief. By choosing not to participate in the hearing and proffer any evidence to support the Complaint, the Complainant has failed to meet this burden.

The Respondent's counsel moved that the Complaint be dismissed with prejudice for failure to prosecute. The due process rights of the Complainant have been protected. The Complainant had notice of the scheduled hearing and failed to appear to prosecute her Complaint. Therefore, the Respondent's Motion to Dismiss the Complaint is granted. Accordingly, the Complaint in this matter will be dismissed in its entirety with prejudice. El-

Ayazra v. West Penn Power Company, Docket No. F-2015-2509292 (Opinion and Order entered June 30, 2016); Volgstadt v. UGI Penn Natural Gas, Inc., Docket No. F-02266429 (Opinion and Order entered September 12, 2008) and Martin Jefferson v. UGI Utilities, Inc., Docket No. Z-00269892 (Opinion and Order entered December 26, 1995).
