RE: Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission Bureau of Investigation and Enforcement
v. AMS Services & Enterprises LLC
Docket No. C-2018-2634875

Dear Ms. Chiavetta and Mr. Swindler:

Enclosed please find Defendant AMS Services & Enterprises LLC's Answer in response to the Public Utility Commission's Complaint in the above-captioned matter. As you can see, my client does not oppose a revocation of the Certificate of Compliance. I am filing this Answer on the advice of David W. Loucks, the Chief of the Motor Carrier Enforcement Division with whom I spoke on June 14, 2018, regarding this unique situation.

Please call me if you have any questions, and I trust that this resolves the matter.

Very truly yours,

McDONALD SNYDER, P.C.

ANSWER AND NEW MATTER

AND NOW COMES Defendant AMS Services & Enterprises LLC ("Defendant" or "AMS";, by and through its counsel the law firm of McDonald Snyder, P.C. and Daniel C. Hudock, Esquire, and files this Answer to the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission's Complaint:

1. Admitted.
2. Admitted.
3. Admitted.
4. Admitted.
5. The allegations in this paragraph contain conclusions of law to which no response is required.

NEW MATTER

6. Defendant does not object to the revocation of the Certificate of Public Convenience issued to Defendant at A-2017-2632690.

7. Defendant's plans have changed since application for the Certificate, and Defendant no longer plans to engage in any business requiring the Certificate.

8. Rather, Defendant intends to remain engaged in the asphalt paving business with its two vehicles.

9. As such, Defendant currently has no need for the Certificate of Public Convenience.

10. Defendant desires that no punitive measures be taken by the Public Utility Commission's Bureau of Investigation Enforcement because of Defendant's failure to schedule the required inspection.

11. Defendant may desire to reapply for a Certificate of Public Convenience in the future, and Defendant does not want to be barred from doing so or otherwise penalized.

Respectfully submitted,

Daniel C. Hudock, Esquire

Warning: Use only the printed original label for shipping. Using a photocopy of this label for shipping purposes is fraudulent and could result in additional billing charges, along with the cancellation of your FedEx account number. Use of this system constitutes your agreement to the service conditions in the current FedEx Service Guide, available on fedex.com. FedEx will not be responsible for any claim in excess of $100 per package, whether the result of loss, damage, delay, non-delivery, misdelivery, or misinformation, unless you declare a higher value, pay an additional charge, document your actual loss and file a timely claim. Limitations found in the current FedEx Service Guide apply. Your right to recover from FedEx for any loss, including intrinsic value of the package, loss of sales, income interest, profit, attorney's fees, costs, and other forms of damage whether direct, incidental, consequential, or special is limited to the greater of $100 or the authorized declared value. Recovery cannot exceed actual documented loss. Maximum for items of extraordinary value is $1,000, e.g. jewelry, precious metals, negotiable instruments and other items listed in our ServiceGuide. Written claims must be filed within strict time limits, see current FedEx Service Guide.
