PRE-HEARING CONFERENCE MEMORANDUM

1. Indiana County, hereinafter “The County” files this Pre-Hearing Conference Memorandum. A Complaint has been filed by Joel Royer which alleges that a railroad crossing located at “intersection of Oakland Ave and Grant Street in Indiana, PA has sunk relative to the concrete aprons at Oakland Ave and its adjacent amiesite at Grant St [sic].” Said Complaint further alleges that the railroad crossing is owned by Buffalo & Pittsburgh Railroad.

2. The subject railroad crossing does not involve any County roads and the County does not have any maintenance or financial interest in the crossing. The County proposes the following witnesses:

John Emerson
Gibson Thomas Engineering, County Engineer
1001 Philadelphia Street
Indiana, PA 15701
May testify as to crossing related issues.

Commissioner Mike Baker
Commissioner Rodney Ruddock
Commissioner Sherene Hess
825 Philadelphia Street
Indiana, PA 15701

Will be able to provide testimony that the County does not own any county roads or railroad crossings or have any financial interest in the crossing and as to budgetary constraints should the County be found responsible for maintaining said crossing.

3. It is requested that the complaint against the County be dismissed against the as it has no ownership or financial interest in the crossing.

Respectfully submitted,

BUDASH & WELCH, LLP
