to Shane, Jeremy

Good morning Mr. Miller,

I received your First Set of Discovery Requests. I noticed they were served on July 10, the same day I contacted you to request an extension of time. For the same reasons as my previous request, I will also need more time to address this new document. I don't want to detail my family happenings in correspondence that will eventually become a matter of public record--but suffice to say there are many coming up over the next few months.

I am requesting the same amount of time as the Preliminary Objections and Answer and New Matter. Since 20 days from the date of service would be July 30, 2018, I am requesting an extension to submit my response to your First Set of Discovery Requests by August 20, 2018, at 4:30 p.m. (I intended a 20-day extension; however, August 19 falls on a Sunday.)

With this extension, you would still receive my responses to your Preliminary Objections to my Complaint and your Answer and New Matter to my Complaint before receiving this new set of responses.

Sincerely,

Grace Edwards
