Dear Secretary of the Commission,

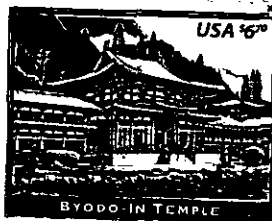

My name is Talitha Bradley and I am writing you to dispute the ruling in my case (Docket # C-2017-2619994) stating that I owe PPL over $3000 dollars. Originally, I got a bill from PPL stating that I owe $6000 for a place I never resided. On page 3 of the judge's ruling the #8 and #9 statements say that PPL were charging me $3150.69 for the McClay Street address but then PPL admitted that I proved I never lived at that address, yet PPL is stating that I still have a balance of more than $3000. I do agree with the balance of 405.43 for 540 Curtain Street however I don't not agree with the nearly $3000 added on to that amount for the total balance. I would like to appeal the judge's ruling and have a court hearing in which I will be able to attend and present my evidence in person.

Sincerely,

Talitha Bradley
