In December 2013, FERC filed a federal lawsuit in the District of Massachusetts against CES, alleging that CES violated FERC anti-manipulation rules relating to a Day Ahead Load Response Program offered in New England by the Independent System Operator of New England. The program was terminated and is not part of the services CES proposes to offer clients in Pennsylvania. CES, which vigorously disputed FERC's allegation, immediately filed a motion to dismiss. The case has been transferred to federal court in the State of Maine. CES has filed a motion to dismiss, which is pending.

The alleged violation took place more than a decade ago. Since the FERC action, many leading public and private institutions have retained CES after looking into the claim. These include: The University of Massachusetts, The University of Maine, The University of Rhode Island, The University of Connecticut, The City of Boston, Massachusetts, The City of Manchester New Hampshire, and The City of Portland Maine. These institutions select CES, in many cases pursuant to competitive bid processes, based on the strength of our service offerings, our long track record and strong referrals from existing clients.

Competitive Energy Services
Company Statement Concerning FERC

PA PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION
SECRETARY'S BUREAU

The Federal Energy Regulatory Commission ("FERC") federal action is simply a repeat of its prior allegations. No court has ever ruled on those allegations, and CES and Dr. Richard Silkman categorically deny FERC's allegations.

CES and Dr. Silkman are pleased that in April 2016 the federal court in Massachusetts granted their motion to transfer this case to Maine, where a federal court for the first time will evaluate the evidence. Because the Massachusetts court had to assume that FERC's allegations were true, it denied their motion to dismiss. CES and Dr. Silkman are confident, however, that now that they are finally able to confront FERC's evidence, and that the federal court in Maine now will finally examine all of the facts, it will conclude that CES and Dr. Silkman did nothing wrong. After six years of a secret FERC investigation in which FERC denied CES and Dr. Silkman the opportunity to confront FERC or cross-examine witnesses, and then after over two years of limbo in Massachusetts federal court, CES and Dr. Silkman will finally get their day in court in Maine.

In 2007, CES and Dr. Silkman provided advice to Rumford Paper Company on its participation in the ISO-New England's flawed Day Ahead Load Response Program. In 2008, after concluding that the Day Ahead Program was fundamentally flawed, FERC cancelled the program. In an effort to shift blame for the flaws in the program, FERC conducted a nearly five-year investigation of participants in the program, including Rumford, Lincoln Pulp & Paper, and perhaps others, as well as CES and Dr. Silkman. FERC never granted CES and Dr. Silkman a hearing and never allowed them to cross-examine witnesses or review FERC's evidence. CES and Dr. Silkman categorically deny that they engaged in market manipulation in advising Rumford Paper on its participation in this flawed program.

Some additional background details:

- FERC does not, and cannot, claim that CES and Dr. Silkman violated any regulations relating to the Day Ahead Program.
- All of the actions to date have been taken by FERC, an entity whose staff and leadership have an obvious bias given their responsibility for the flawed and, by FERC order, repealed Day-Ahead Load Response Program which is central to this issue and in which both Rumford and Lincoln mills participated along with dozens of others throughout New England.

- FERC is also targeting Lincoln Paper & Tissue, another Maine company with which CES and Dr. Silkman have never worked. The Rumford and Lincoln mills have been accused of a violation for participating in the program in the same manner as dozens of other participants and in full compliance with rules and program guidance.
- ISO-NE accepted the bids from Rumford Paper and numerous other participants. ISO-NE had access to minute-by-minute reports on participants' historic and current power consumption when it accepted these bids. Rumford Paper and all other participants stood ready to interrupt their consumption when called, but ISO-NE never made the request.
- CES and Dr. Silkman did everything possible to help Rumford Paper comply with a poorly-designed program. The information, guidance and technical assistance that CES & Dr. Silkman provided to their client was entirely correct, complied with every rule and requirement of the program and was consistent with how numerous other participants around New England engaged in the DALRP.
- Rumford Paper settled this matter under the pressure of bankruptcy negotiations and in their settlement did not agree that any violation had occurred. They simply returned the money they had received from the program. FERC accepted this settlement.

Exhibit 7A - Financial Fitness

Competitive Energy Services, LLC is a limited liability company incorporated in the State of Maine and is in good standing. (A copy of its Articles of Organization and a certificate of good standing are attached to this as Exhibit 2C and 2D.) In addition, CES is registered as a Foreign Limited Liability Company under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania (a copy of the Certificate of Registration and Application for Registration are attached to this application as Exhibit 2A and 2B).

CES has been in operation continuously for over eighteen (18) years. Its primary operations have been in New England.

CES is a closely held private company. Its financial information is held in the strictest of confidences. CES currently holds licenses as a natural gas broker/marketer in:

- Maine
- Massachusetts
- Connecticut
- Maryland
- New Hampshire

There are no license requirements in other states where CES operates, including Vermont, Rhode Island and New York. In addition, CES has provided energy procurement and consulting services in the Canadian Province of New Brunswick, where its clients include the Province of New Brunswick and the largest city - Saint John, and the Province of Nova Scotia.

CES has held Market-Based Rate Authority from the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC) since 2001, Docket No. ER01-2562-000. In addition, CES is a Participant in NEPOOL/ISO-NE.

A copy of CES's 2016 and 2017 Balance Sheet and Income Statement is being provided under separate cover to the PA-PUC as Confidential Documents.

Dear Lynn Gallagher:

We are pleased that Competitive Energy Services, LLC has applied for a license to provide Natural Gas Broker/Marketer Services on the distribution system of Columbia Gas of Pennsylvania, Inc. ("Columbia Gas").

Under Paragraph 2.4.5 of the Rules Applicable to Distribution Service section of the Tariff of Columbia Gas, Competitive Energy Services, LLC could be required to provide to Columbia Gas a bond or other financial security instrument in an amount that Columbia Gas determines to be appropriate. Competitive Energy Services, LLC has indicated only brokering and consulting services will be provided. Therefore, we have determined at this time that Competitive Energy Services, LLC does not need a bond or other financial security requirement to provide broker natural gas services to Columbia Gas customers.

If the creditworthiness requirement or Columbia Gas' exposure to Competitive Energy Services, LLC changes in the future, Columbia Gas might deem it appropriate to require Competitive Energy Services, LLC to provide a bond or other financial security instrument.

Please feel free to contact me at 614-460-4217 should you have any questions regarding a bond or other financial security instrument requirements of Columbia Gas.

Dear Andrew,

National Fuel Gas Distribution Corporation ("NFGDC") is aware Competitive Energy Services, LLC (CES) has filed an application with the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission to supply natural gas service to the public in Pennsylvania and specifically within the service territory of NFGDC.

As you know, in making such an application, CES must furnish acceptable security to each utility where CES will do business. As such, under its tariff, NFGDC could require CES to provide a bond or other financial security instrument in an amount that NFGDC determines to be appropriate.

However, you have indicated, and it is NFGDC's understanding that CES intends only to provide natural gas aggregating, brokering and consulting services at this time. You have stated that, in performing these services, CES will never take title to any delivered natural gas.

Based upon your representations, NFGDC has determined that, at this time, CES does not need to post a bond or other form of security to operate in its service territory. However, if the services provided by CES change in the future, NFGDC reserves the right to require security from CES as it deems appropriate.

If you have any questions concerning the foregoing, please contact me at 716-857-7541.

We are pleased that Competitive Energy Services, LLC has applied for a license to provide natural gas services on the Peoples Group of Companies. Specifically you have requested to be licensed as a supplier on the distribution systems of Peoples Natural Gas Company LLC, Peoples Natural Gas Company LLC – Equitable Division, and Peoples Gas Company LLC (formerly Peoples TWP) ("the Companies").

Since Competitive Energy Services, LLC is not currently serving customers on the Peoples systems, we have determined at this time that Competitive Energy Services, LLC does not need a bond or other financial security requirement to provide these services to the Company's customers.

If a Pool is established, and customers are enrolled which alters the creditworthiness requirement or the Company's exposure to Competitive Energy Services, LLC provision of services on the Peoples' system changes in the future, the Companies may deem it appropriate to require a bond or other financial instrument.

Dear Mr. Bridgham,

Based on your assertion that Competitive Energy Services, LLC ("COMPETITIVE ENERGY") is applying with the State of Pennsylvania to operate as a natural gas broker/marketer, UGI Utilities, Inc. ("UGIU") has concluded that COMPETITIVE ENERGY will not need to post security with UGI Utilities, Inc. – Gas Division ("UGI"), UGI Penn Natural Gas, Inc. ("PNG") or UGI Central Penn Gas, Inc. ("CPG"). This is based on the declaration that COMPETITIVE ENERGY will be acting in conjunction with a licensed Natural Gas Supplier who has been approved by the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission to serve in the applicable UGIU service territories and who has posted the required financial security as specified in the respective UGIU Tariffs. If COMPETITIVE ENERGY wishes to directly serve Choice customers in the serve territories of UGI, PNG and/or CPG in the future as a natural gas supplier, it will have to post security as specified in the respective UGI Tariffs prior to the commencement of the service.

PECO is aware that Competitive Energy Services, LLC has applied for a license to provide brokering and consulting services to commercial and industrial customers on the distribution system of PECO.

Mark Isaacson is a founding partner in Competitive Energy Services, which was formed in 2000. Mr. Isaacson began his career in the electric industry in 1980 by becoming a partner in two hydroelectric facilities in Maine – the Edwards Dam and the Worumbo Dam. Mr. Isaacson spent the first decade of his energy career turning the 900 KW Worumbo Dam into today's 19.4 MW project. In 2004, the Worumbo project became the first in Maine to receive certification from the Low Impact Hydro Institute as low impact project. Mr. Isaacson was the lead protagonist in the debate over the fate of the Edwards Dam and he negotiated the historic settlement of this debate in 1999, with the gift of the Edwards Dam to the people of Maine.

Mr. Isaacson is also a partner in Beaver Ridge Wind, LLC, Maine's second commercial wind farm and the first in the Central Maine Power Company service territory. Mr. Isaacson is a founding Partner in Maine Renewable Energy, a retail electric supplier of 100% renewable electricity to the residential and small commercial market in Maine. Mr. Isaacson has extensive expertise in marketing as well as in the development of mathematical models. His recent modeling efforts have been concerned with the coordination of solar generation systems with utility load and fuel switching algorithms for large cogenerators.

PROFESSIONAL HIGHLIGHTSSmurfit Stone Container Corporation (2007)

Managed the sale of its hydroelectric and paper mill facilities in Bathurst, New Brunswick, Canada. The hydroelectric facilities were sold to New Brunswick Power.

NewPage Corporation (2006)

Managed the sale of its 40 MW hydroelectric plant in Rumford, Maine. Since the hydroelectric plant is intertwined physically with the paper mill at the same site, the sale required complex negotiations regarding property and water rights issues as well as electric interconnection matters. Nevertheless, the plant sold for $144 million - $3,600 per kW – more than twice the previous high for a run-of-river hydro plant in the Northeast.

Continental PET (1997 – 2000)

Developed a 5.4 MW cogeneration plant consisting of 6, 900 kW natural gas-fired engine-generators designed to enable the manufacturing facility to generate 100% of its electric requirements and disconnect from the New Hampshire electric grid.
