Docket No. C-2017-2634987

West Penn Power Company

Objection to Settlement and Certificate of Satisfaction

To the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission:

1. A Certificate of Satisfaction was filed with the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission on August 27, 2018.

2. Having questions and concerns, I called Ms. Lepkoski as follows: Tuesday morning, 8/28/18 at 9:30 a.m., I didn't hear back; Wednesday afternoon, 8/29/18 at 2:25 p.m., I didn't hear back; and again Friday morning, 8/31/18 at 10:25 a.m., I didn't hear back. Each time, I had gotten her voice mail. Each time, I had left a message with my name and phone number, asking her, on 8/28, to: "please return my call at your earliest convenience with regard to our settlement." On 8/29: "Hi Ms. Lepkoski, This is Lynn Force. I need to talk to you about our settlement. If you could please return my call my number is 814-237-0578." And, on 8/31: "Hello Ms. Lepkoski, This is Lynn Force. I have questions and concerns about our settlement. I've left two earlier messages but haven't heard back from you. My number where I can be reached is 814-237-0578. Please call me. Thank you."

I have received no return call.

3. In order to preserve my rights, I'd like to object to the settlement and certificate of satisfaction.

Respectfully submitted,

Lynn Force
