A Silent Tear

*Just close your eyes and you will see
All the memories that you have of me
Just sit and relax and you will find
I'm really still there inside your mind*

*Don't cry for me now I'm gone
For I am in the land of song
There is no pain, there is no fear
So dry away that silent tear*

*Don't think of me in the dark and cold
For here I am, no longer old
I'm in that place that's filled with love
Known to you all, as "up above"*

If Tears Could Build A Stairway

*If tears could build a stairway,
and memories a lane,
I would walk right up to Heaven and bring you back again.*

*No farewell words were spoken,
No time to say "Goodbye".
You were gone before I knew it,
and only God knows why.*

*My heart still aches with sadness,
and secret tears still flow.
What it meant to love you -
No one can ever know.*

*But now I know you want me
to mourn for you no more;
To remember all the happy times
life still has much in store.*

*Since you'll never be forgotten,
I pledge to you today~
A hollowed place within my heart is where you'll always stay.*

PA PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION
SECRETARY'S BUREAU

INTRODUCTION

This Initial Decision dismisses the formal Complaint of James Rich against Philadelphia Gas Works because he failed to carry his burden of proving that he is entitled to a new or subsequent Commission-issued payment arrangement, or a hold on his account pursuant to a medical certification.

HISTORY OF THE PROCEEDING

On May 22, 2018, James Rich (Mr. Rich or Complainant) filed a formal Complaint (Complaint) against Philadelphia Gas Works (PGW or Respondent) with the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission (Commission). In the Complaint, Mr. Rich placed checkmarks in the boxes indicating "[t]he utility is threatening to shut off my service or has already shut off my service," and "I would like a payment agreement." Mr. Rich also placed a checkmark in the box indicating "Other," explaining that he seeks a hold on his account pursuant to a medical certification.
