Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission
Commonwealth Keystone Building

Re: Richard McGrath/Ultimate Sports Company, Inc. v. PPL Electric Utilities Corporation
Docket No.: C-2017-2633651

Dear Secretary Chiavetta,

Kindly this accept this correspondence in response to the letter of the OSBA, by Attorney Gray, dated October 30, 2018 in the above-referenced matter. In accordance with the Commission's Order on Monday, October 29, 2018, I filed Exceptions on behalf of PPL Electric Utilities Corporation. As was required by prior Orders in this matter, we provided all counsel with an e-mail which contained a PDF copy of the cover letter as well as a link to filed version of the Exceptions. Shortly after providing an e-mail to all individuals, we were advised by one party that they were unable to access a copy of the Exceptions. Thereafter, an e-mail was sent to Attorney Groshens and ALJ Barnes. Unfortunately, the same e-mail did not include Attorney Gray. However, upon receiving a time-stamped version of the Exceptions, which were noted as filed, we mailed a copy of the same to everyone. The time-stamped version was not available until us until the morning of October 30, 2018 and it was this time that a hard copy of the time-stamped version of the Exceptions were provided via mail to all counsel. As PPL has substantially complied, we oppose the request of the OSBA. Further, to the extend the OSBA requests any additional time to respond to the exceptions, PPL Electric has no objections.

Very truly yours,

Kimberly G. Krupka
