

To Secretary Rosemary Chiavetta,

January 2, 2019

I am replying to the exception for Docket number C-2018-3003563. I maintain that this is a case of my not having been given a chance to reply to the exception filed over a year after the case was heard by Administrative law Judge Angela T. Jones. This case was completed, I received a copy of the same filing I had received prior with no additional exception. There is no copy of what they sent to me, only that they sent anything. This case is costing PGW with lawyers fees, more than what they claim we owe. I am trying to make this clear. If I had a trial with Judge Angela T. Jones and was willing to go through all that, why would I not reply to an exception which didn't negate anything. Please allow me to right the wrong which has been done.
Thank you, Esther and Elchanan Abergel
