

III. DEPARTMENT ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Department of Transportation has jurisdiction over any person operating any motor vehicle in the transportation of household goods for hire as a household goods carrier pursuant to Section 13b-389 of the Connecticut General Statutes. Further, no person shall operate as a household goods carrier, within Connecticut, without first obtaining a certificate of public convenience and necessity to so operate.

In determining whether such a certificate shall be granted, the Commissioner of Transportation shall take into consideration the existing motor transportation facilities and the effect upon them of granting such a certificate, the suitability of the applicant, the financial responsibility of the applicant, the ability of the applicant efficiently to perform the service for which the authority is requested, the condition of and effect upon the highways involved and the safety of the public using such highways, pursuant to Section 13b-392 of the Connecticut General Statutes.

The first criterion to be taken into account is the effect on the existing motor carrier facilities by granting the certificate. This application was not opposed by any existing motor carrier. Since the application was not opposed at the hearing, it appears that there would not be any effect on the existing motor carrier facilities if this application were granted.

As far as the applicant's financial ability is concerned, the applicant presented evidence that as of November 30, 2014, the applicant had $150,974 cash in the bank. The total current assets were $276,094 and the total current liabilities were $12,168. The net working capital was $263,925. The income statement for the eleven months ended was $233,121. The applicant's insurance is paid until October 2015. The estimated startup cost for the first 6 months is $49,000.

The applicant has sufficient funds to cover a six month start-up period.

The applicant submitted a criminal record checks for Yuriy Antonov and Julia Bilyk which showed no criminal convictions in Connecticut or New York, their state of residency. Mr. Antonov has experience in the moving business and is familiar with the rules and regulations. Several of the applicant's former clients testified about the reliable and professional services that he provides and who want to utilize the applicant's moving service for upcoming moves. The applicant also presented one witness who has used the applicant himself, and wants to refer his customers to use the applicant on intrastate moves. Based on the evidence presented, the applicant is suitable to operate the proposed service.

Also to be considered is the ability of the applicant to efficiently perform the service for which the authority is requested and the condition of and effect upon the highways involved and the safety of the public using such highways, The applicant has experience in the moving and storage business and will be able to efficiently handle the moves he is seeking. The applicant will be utili zing one box truck which will have a minimal effect on the highways.

Based upon the evidence presented, the applicant has proven all of the necessary elements to be granted a certificate.
