ORDER

On May 6, 1988, Philadelphia Electric Company (PECO) filed a request to correct the transcripts of the hearings held on April 20, 1988 and April 21, 1988. Thereafter, by letter dated May 12, 1988, received May 18, 1988, the Office of Consumer Advocate (OCA) objected to certain of the requested transcript corrections alleging that they did not bring the transcript into conformity with the evidence presented at the hearing and thus were violative of 52 Pa. Code §5.252(a).

Section 5.252(a) of the Commission's Regulations, 52

Pa. Code §5.252(a) provides as follows:

§5.252. Transcript corrections.

(a) Corrections in the official transcript may be made only to make it conform to the evidence presented at the hearing and to speak the truth.

Upon consideration of PECO's request to correct the transcripts and the OCA's objections thereto, and applying the above-cited Regulation; it is hereby ORDERED:

1. That the objections of the Office of Consumer Advocate to Philadelphia Electric Company's requested corrections to the transcript of the April 20, 1988 hearing are hereby sustained. All other requested transcript corrections not objected-to are hereby granted.

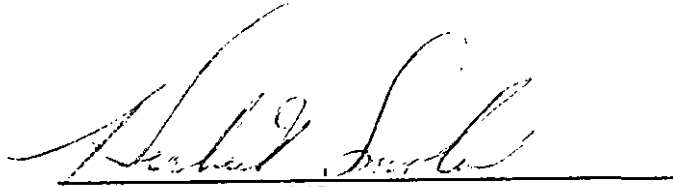

2. That the objections of the Office of Consumer Advocate to Philadelphia Electric Company's requested corrections to the transcript of the April 21, 1988 hearing are hereby sustained, except for the following corrections which are hereby granted:
