January 21, 2019

Please consider this letter as an answer to the Bureau's complaint outlined in Docket No. C-2019-3006934.

Respondent has always maintained all necessary coverage for its insurance since its initial filing for its Motor Carrier Authority dated 12/27/2016

After receiving notice from PUC dated 12/23/18 and numerous phone calls to our insurer, On Monday, December 31, 2018, respondent spoke to a Melissa from customer service from insurer to inform them of their failure to file Forms E and H for Cargo and Liability with the PUC. Attachments were E-mailed to her (See attached E-mails).

On Friday January 18, 2019, Respondent received e-serve complaint and again contacted insurer by forwarding previous notices and complaint. (See attachments)

Wherefore, respondent prays that you find that the respondent has consistently made effort to direct insurer to make the appropriate filings and has satisfied the requirements as set forth in the Pennsylvania code governing motor carrier insurance.

Respectfully submitted
