Re: Mary Benhayon v. PPL Electric Utilities Corporation
Docket No. C-2018-3003491

Dear Judge Barnes:

On or about January 7, 2019, Mary Benhayon requested that the telephonic hearing scheduled for January 10, 2019, be continued, due to a conflict with her upcoming doctor's appointment. PPL Electric Utilities Corporation ("PPL Electric" or the "Company") agreed to the continuance and has been trying to develop an alternative date for the hearing. After conferring with the Company and Ms. Benhayon, I can represent that both parties would like the telephonic evidentiary hearing rescheduled for Friday, February 8, 2019.

Currently, there is another hearing scheduled before Your Honor on February 8, 2019, involving PPL Electric. However, there is a pending request by the complainant in that proceeding for the hearing to be rescheduled, and the parties in that proceeding have been actively working on an alternative date for that hearing. Therefore, given the likelihood of the hearing being rescheduled in that case, as well as the limited available dates for hearings in the spring and summer of 2019, PPL Electric believes it is appropriate to reschedule the telephonic evidentiary hearing in the above-captioned matter for February 8, 2019.
