Section 5. a

In April, 2018, John Lowry filed a Class Action suit in federal court in PA against Shiple Energy Company, several other Shiple owned companies, Tesla Energy and David Hjorth. Tesla Energy and David Hjorth is a telemarketing company that Shiple contracted with on several occasions. The issue was the use of 'ringless voice mail messages. These messages were delivered to several thousand homes. Tesla and Hjorth agreed in writing to indemnify and hold harmless Shiple from any claims demands, etc resulting from third party clams.

While there has been some depositions attempted, there has been no activity in the filing for several months and the due date for Lowry to file needed paperwork for the judge to certify the Class Action is long past.

Shiple awaits actions by the court and Mr. Lowry.

Section 8 e

Click Energy, LLC d/b/a Smartclick is a division of parent Shipley Group, LP, which is a fourth-generation family-owned company started in 1929. Based out of York, Pennsylvania, Smart Click has been supplying heating oil and propane since early 2015. Our customer base serves all of New England and NJ, NY, MD, and PA. This year we hope to begin Natural Gas service in PA and OH. Our parent company's Natural Gas territory serves 21,000 customers in UGI, Columbia Gas of PA, PECO, BGE, and DUKE; our Electric supply territory currently includes 18,500 PPL, PECO, Duquesne, BGE, DUKE and Met-Ed customers. We have been a member of PJM since late 2012. Under a separate license, EnergyObjective has also brokered electricity to about 300 commercial and industrial customers in Pennsylvania and several other states since 2014. In addition to electricity and natural gas, the separate companies of Shipley Group, LP serve fuel oil, propane, gasoline, HVAC service, and several additional services to a total of 72,000 residential, commercial and industrial customers.

We are excited to renew our license in Pennsylvania. Initial entry into supply occur in PECO and PPL where we're serving residential. We plan to be in all residential markets, but only if serving the customers there is financially viable – i.e., there is sufficient headroom versus the cost to serve and the utility price. Expansion into commercial and industrial markets may occur later.

William Shipley III (Chairman), Dave Gruno (CEO) and Matthew Sommer (President and COO of Shipley Group) guide the strategic plans of the company and will help lead the PA supplier expansion. Richard Beamesderfer (CFO) leads a competent and well-staffed finance team. Steven Downey controls all supplier relationships, pricing, and customer-level sales strategy for this product.
