States it covers jacks used to receive Verizon services.

The image is a screenshot of the Verizon website. At the top left is the Verizon logo with a checkmark. To its right are navigation links: "Shop", "My Verizon", "Support", and "Watch Fios". On the far right of the top bar is a search bar with the placeholder text "I am looking for" and a magnifying glass icon.

The main content area features a large banner for "Identity theft and credit fraud protection from TechSure Plus." The text reads: "Protect yourself from online and digital threats like identity theft, credit fraud and even viruses with services from LifeLock and McAfee Plus, get 24/7 tech support for just $15/mo (plus taxes). No annual contract required." Below this text are two buttons: "Get TechSure Plus" and "Watch video >".

The background of the banner shows a woman on the right talking on a mobile phone while looking at a laptop. On the left, a young boy with glasses is playing with a colorful toy. The laptop screen displays the LifeLock website.

Below the banner is a section for "Identity protection services with LifeLock Select." It features the LifeLock logo (a red shield with a white figure) and the text: "LifeLock's Million Dollar Protection™ Package will cover your personal expenses incurred and reimburse your stolen funds, up to $25,000, as well as provide the necessary lawyers and experts to..."
