RE: C-2017-2630649
Conference Schedule

Judge Watson, Rosemary Chiavetti, Lauren Lepkoski esq, Tori Giesler esq :

In spite of my cancellation of the prehearing conference which you scheduled for Friday, April 19, 2019 (Good Friday) at 10:00 a.m. without my input/approval, Jeanette, (Judge Watson's secretary), called me at approximately 10:27 on Friday morning reminding me that I was late for the conference scheduled for 10:00 a.m. I was not late because I had already canceled that conference. Why did you ignore my cancellation of this conference? I repeat myself, "No one can be held liable for a canceled contract." Any offer which the PUC puts forth is subject to review, acceptance, or cancellation. I canceled the April 19 date for multiple reasons including the fact that it was Good Friday. Have you even read my mail to you? Nevertheless, I have receipts from the Post Office with your signature cards proving that you received my refusals to contract for a meeting on that day so you have no excuses for this scheduling debacle. At this point, I am willing to hear your latest proposal so that we can finally bring this case to an end. I await your re-scheduling of the prehearing conference.

Sincerely,

Michael W. Chattin

P.S. Judge, I hereby withdraw my offer to settle this case. This offer was to be forthcoming within ten days from my last letter to you wherein I referenced cancellation of the conference on April 19, 2019. Now since you are intent upon having another conference, it must wait pending the outcome of that conference.
