cn This formal complaint was closed 3/5/2019. I never received the initial decision or the final decision. I had an attorney, Alan Kane, represent me at the hearings
and I was told by the PUC
that everything was reserved to him.

He states that he never get anything from THE PUC. I never had a chance to submit exceptions or an appeal,
which according to the PUC process

I am entitled to. He said he has attempted to contact you but has not heard back from anyone. I need to be able to appeal since I have a 4/17/19 date from PECO.

Hello.

In reference to the above stated docket number, I had a formal complaint with the PUC versus P&CO. I had an attorney, Alan Kane, represent me at the hearing.

There was an initial decision made in January & a final decision in March. The decisions were reserved to Mr. Kane & myself, but neither one of us received them. As a result, we did not submit exceptions or appeals since we weren't aware that a decision was made.

I had sent in a letter to the PUC explaining this and my desire to send in exceptions/appeals based on the fact that I did not receive anything nor did my attorney.

I got this letter for Petition for Reconsideration which I have included as well as a Notarized Verification.

Since neither myself or my attorney never received either decision allowing us to submit exceptions, I am hopeful I'm given the opportunity to do so.

In the past, and most recently, I've received letters from the Pvc. Unfortunately, the decisions were erased, and this has many ways that can prevent successful delivery; such as SPAM or Junk mail which is sometimes automatically deleted/scrubbed or in my case it was sent to an email that I have not used in almost two years. I now use mira1297@gmail.com and it was sent to mira1297@verizon.net.

I appreciate your consideration in this matter. I am trying to resolve this with PECO and I hope you will accept my petition for Reconsideration given the fact I was not aware that any decision was made.

I thank you in advance for your help.

Regards,

Mira Kamenik
