

April 28, 2019

Ref: Docket # C-2018-3004647

To: Rosemary Chiaucetta, Sec. P.P.U.C.

This letter shall serve as formal response to "Notice to Plead" received April 27th 2019 from the Metropolitan Edison Company and its legal Dept. of Lauren M. Lepkoski, and Tori L. Giesler Esqs.

We hereby request motion to compel the complainant, John Siegle, be denied on the basis that the response/responses are in violation of our basic rights to privacy and privileged information.

No replies are required and objections may also be included to all discovery requests which fall under the protection of the 14th Amendment of the Constitution of the United States, which states "any cause that interferes with the peoples affairs," being their right to privacy, and or be deprived of their right to life, liberty, and property.

Also adopted and signed by the General Assembly of the United States + United Nations Article 17 titled International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights - entered into force March 23rd 1976 in accordance w. Article 49. - No one shall be subjected to arbitrary or unlawful interference with his privacy, family, home, or correspondence.

RECEIVED

MAY - 1 2019

PA PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION
SECRETARY'S BUREAU

185 W. MADISON ST

19540

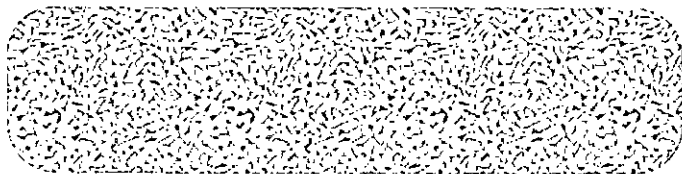

HARRISBURG PA 17105

29 APR 2019 PM 4 L

ROSEMARY CHIAVETTA Sec.
P.P.U.C. P.O. Box 3265
HARR. PA. 17105-3265

17105-326565

Automatic Payments. Simple. Easy. Awesome.

Sign up for automatic payments, and your monthly charges will process safely and securely on time, every time.

Sign up now at xfinity.com/myaccount