RE: Donna DeSanto Ott v. Metropolitan Edison Company, No. C-2018-3005829

Dear Judge Watson:

Please be advised that I am the attorney the Complainant in the above-captioned matter, Donna DeSanto Ott, was referring to during the prehearing conference held before you on Thursday, May 9, 2019, and it is my intention to file a Notice of Appearance on her behalf. Mrs. Ott had attempted to contact me by the deadline you had imposed during the prehearing conference, but I was in Erie, PA at the time, and was not available to discuss this matter with her. However, I have now had the opportunity to speak with Mrs. Ott, and it is my understanding that you have issued an interim order rescheduling the prehearing conference for Thursday, May 23, 2019, at 9:00 a.m., which is why I am writing to you now. Unfortunately, I have a conflict at that time, in the form of a previously scheduled hearing before Judge J. Brian Johnson in the Lehigh County Court of Common Pleas, pursuant to an order issued by Judge Johnson back on March 11, 2019. As such, I am respectfully requesting a brief continuance of the prehearing conference to a new date and time, so I can attend on behalf of my client. Please let me know as soon as possible the new date and time for said conference, so I can reserve it in my calendar.

I want to thank you for your anticipated cooperation and assistance in this matter. If you have any questions, or would like to discuss any of this further, I will be more than happy to make myself available.

Very truly yours,

Michael P. Giles
