MOTION OF PPL ELECTRIC UTILITIES CORPORATION TO COMPEL RESPONSES TO DISCOVERY PROPOUNDED ON WILLIAM D. HAAS – SET I

TO ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE ELIZABETH H. BARNES:

Pursuant to 52 Pa. Code §§ 5.342(g) and 5.349(d), PPL Electric Utilities Corporation (“PPL Electric” or the “Company”) hereby files this Motion to Compel Responses to Discovery Propounded on William D. Haas (“Complainant”) – Set I. In support of its Motion, PPL Electric states as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. On March 28, 2019, PPL Electric served Interrogatories and Requests for Production of Documents on the Complainant – Set I (“PPL to Complainant Set I”) via first class mail. A true and correct copy of PPL to Complainant Set I is attached hereto and marked as Appendix A.

2. Pursuant to the Commission's regulations, objections to PPL to Complainant Set I were due on or before April 10, 2019, and responses were due on or before April 22, 2019.¹

3. The Complainant never served any objections or answers to PPL to Complainant Set I.

4. Pursuant to the Prehearing Order dated January 17, 2019, the Complainant was required to serve any statements, reports, and direct testimony of any expert witness he intends to call on or before April 1, 2019.

5. The Complainant has not served any statements, reports, and direct testimony of any expert witness on PPL Electric to date.

6. The Company served its direct testimony and exhibits in this case on May 1, 2019, as required by the Prehearing Order.

7. On June 5, 2019, counsel for PPL Electric called the number for the Complainant listed in the Formal Complaint and left a detailed voicemail about, among other things, the status of the overdue discovery responses. A man named "Emmett Poole" called PPL Electric's counsel back and indicated that his phone number is what was listed in the Complaint and that he would speak with the Complainant about the overdue discovery responses.

8. As of the filing of this Motion, no formal, complete responses to PPL to Complainant Set I have been received.

¹ Because the discovery was served via first-class mail by the United States Postal Service ("USPS"), three days were added to the prescribed period for response. See 52 Pa. Code § 1.56(b).

II. MOTION TO COMPEL

9. PPL Electric respectfully requests that the Administrative Law Judge Elizabeth H. Barnes (the “ALJ”) direct the Complainant to answer fully all of the interrogatories set forth in PPL to Complainant Set I.

10. Under 52 Pa. Code § 5.321(c), a party is entitled to obtain discovery of any matter not privileged that is relevant to the pending proceeding, or any matter that is reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Discovery is permitted regardless of whether the information sought “relates to the claim or defense of the party seeking discovery or to the claim or defense of another party.” Id.

11. Answers to interrogatories are due within 20 days of the service date. 52 Pa. Code § 5.342(d).

12. Here, PPL Electric served its first set of interrogatories on March 28, 2019. Consequently, answers to PPL to Complainant Set I were due on or before April 22, 2019.² Therefore, the responses are now well past due.

13. Further, the Complainant never objected to any of the questions in PPL to Complainant Set I.

14. In addition, the interrogatories propounded by PPL Electric are highly relevant to the issues to be decided in this case, including the Complainant’s claim that the new automated meter infrastructure (“AMI”) meter will cause, contribute to, or exacerbate adverse health effects.

15. For example, the Complainant provided a cell phone number in all of his Formal Complaints. (See Complaints ¶ 1.)

² Under Section 1.56(b) of the Commission’s regulations, three days were added to the response period. See 52 Pa. Code § 1.56(b).

16. In its interrogatories, PPL Electric requests information about the Complainant's cell phone usage as well as information about any devices that emit radio frequency ("RF") fields that are contained in or used in the Complainant's house.

17. As the testimony of PPL Electric's expert witness on RF exposures – Dr. Christopher Davis – will demonstrate, however, the RF exposures received from use of a cell phone (or even standing within 30 feet of another person using a cell phone) and other devices are far higher than from an AMI meter.

18. Moreover, the evidentiary hearing is scheduled for June 26, 2019, and all exhibits and testimony must be sent to the ALJ no later than June 21, 2019.

19. Therefore, PPL Electric is filing this Motion to Compel to try to receive answers to the discovery in sufficient time before the evidentiary hearing.

20. In addition, on May 1, 2019, PPL Electric served the statements, reports, written testimony, and exhibits it intends to present at the hearing.

21. PPL Electric reserves the right to supplement or revise any of its exhibits, reports, and statements, to the extent that the Complainant serves any of these discovery responses.

22. For these reasons, PPL Electric respectfully requests that the ALJ grant its Motion to Compel Responses to Discovery.

III. NOTICE OF INTENT TO SEEK SANCTIONS

23. Upon the motion of a party, the presiding officer may make an appropriate order for sanctions if a party fails to answer or otherwise respond to a discovery request or refuses to obey an order of the presiding officer respecting discovery. See 52 Pa. Code § 5.371(a).

24. In ruling upon a motion for sanctions, the presiding officer may, among other things, issue: (1) "[a]n order that the matters regarding which the questions were asked, the character or description of the thing or land, the contents of the paper, or other designated fact shall be taken to be established for the purposes of the action in accordance with the claim of the party obtaining the order”; (2) [a]n order refusing to allow the disobedient party to support or oppose designated claims or defenses, or prohibiting the party from introducing in evidence designated documents, things or testimony”; and (3) “[a]n order striking out pleadings or parts thereof, staying further proceedings until the order is obeyed, or entering a judgment against the disobedient party or individual advising the disobedience.” Id. § 5.372(a)(1)-(3).

25. Therefore, to the extent that this Motion is granted and the Complainant fails to answer fully PPL to Complainant Set I, or otherwise comply with the ALJ’s order, PPL Electric intends to file an appropriate Motion for Sanctions pursuant to 52 Pa. Code §§ 5.371(a) and 5.372(a).

IV. CONCLUSION

For the reasons set forth above, PPL Electric Utilities Corporation respectfully requests that Administrative Law Judge Elizabeth H. Barnes grant this Motion to Compel Responses to Discovery and direct William D. Haas to answer fully PPL to Complainant Set I, as described above within three (3) days from the date of the order.

The specific nature of the document should also be stated (e.g., letter, business record, memorandum, computer print-out, etc.).

In lieu of “identifying” any document, it shall be deemed a sufficient compliance with these discovery requests to attach a copy of each such document to the answers hereto and reference said document in the particular interrogatory to which the document is responsive.

6. “Document” means the original and all drafts of all written and graphic matter, however produced or reproduced, of any kind or description, whether or not sent or received, and all copies thereof which are different in any way from the original (whether by interlineation, date-stamp, notarization, indication of copies sent or received, or otherwise), including without limitation, any paper, book, account, photograph, blueprint, drawing, sketch, schematic, agreement, contract, memorandum, press release, circular, advertising material, correspondence, letter, telegram, telex, object, report, opinion, investigation, record, transcript, hearing, meeting, study, notation, working paper, summary, intra-office communication, diary, chart, minutes, index sheet, computer software, computer-generated records or files, however stored, check, check stub, delivery ticket, bill of lading, invoice, record or recording or summary of any telephone or other conversation, or of any interview or of any conference, or

10. Items referred to in the masculine include those in the feminine, and items referred to in the feminine include those in the masculine.

11. The answers provided to these discovery requests should first restate the question asked and identify the person(s) supplying the information.

12. In answering these discovery requests, the Responding Party is requested to furnish all information that is available to the Responding Party, including information in the possession of the Responding Party's attorneys, agents, consultants, or investigators, and not merely such information of the Responding Party's own knowledge. If any of the discovery requests cannot be answered in full after exercising due diligence to secure the requested information, please so state and answer to the extent possible, specifying the Responding Party's inability to answer the remainder, and stating whatever information the Responding Party has concerning the unanswered portions. If the Responding Party's answer is qualified in any particular, please set forth the details of such qualification.

13. If the Responding Party objects to providing any document requested on any ground, identify such document by describing it as set forth in Instruction 5 and state the basis of the objection.

14. If the Responding Party objects to part of a discovery request and refuses to answer that part, state the Responding Party's objection and answer the remaining portion of that discovery request. If the Responding Party objects to the scope or time period of a discovery request and refuses to answer for that scope or time period, state the Responding Party's objection and answer the discovery request for the scope or time period that the Responding Party believes is appropriate.

15. If, in connection with a discovery request, the Responding Party contends that any information, otherwise subject to discovery, is covered by either the attorney-client privilege, the so-called "attorneys' work product doctrine," or any other privilege or doctrine, then specify the general subject matter of the information and the basis to support each such objection.

16. If any information is withheld on grounds of privilege or other protection from disclosure, provide the following information: (a) every person to whom such information has been communicated and from whom such information was learned; (b) the nature and subject matter of the information; and (c) the basis on which the privilege or other protection from disclosure is claimed.
