PROPOSED LAY WITNESSES OF INTERVENOR
EDGMONT TOWNSHIP

Pursuant to the Prehearing Order of August 2, 2019, Edgmont Township has identified the following individual as a potential lay witness who may testify at Public Utility Commission hearings in the above-captioned matter on October 23 and 24, 2019. The Township will amend the list as necessary if new subject areas for testimony arise.

The witness is Ronald Gravina, Chairman, Edgmont Township Board of Supervisors, 1000 Gradyville Road, P.O. Box 267, Gradyville, Pa. 19039; phone (610) 459-1662.

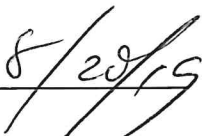

It is expected that Mr. Gravina will testify about the challenges facing Edgmont Township in responding to a potential hazard, including his experience as Township Fire Chief and a First Responder to any potential incident related to the Pipelines. Mr. Gravina has been a First Responder in Edgmont Township for over thirty years and has been a Township Supervisor for many years.

Respectfully submitted,

PIERCE & HUGHES, P.C.
