Safelift Transportation Service LLC
Request for Information

PA PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION
SECRETARY'S BUREAU

- In your application you checked that you have been convicted of a misdemeanor or felony. It says that if "yes" please explain. Please explain the circumstances and situation behind your "yes" answer.

To Whom it May Concern,

Adama Gumbi wasn't convicted of a felony it was Murad Brown my partner. I would like to explain the circumstances around me answering yes to being convicted of a felony. In 1995 I was convicted of a felony. As a young impressionable man, I participated in the illegal drug trade. I grew up in an environment where the illegal drug trade was glamorized as an option to uplift me out of my circumstances. Like many of my peers. I was eventually arrested and convicted for crimes associated with the illegal drug trade. It isn't something I am proud of. I am however proud of the man I have become since then. I am a loving father, husband, business owner and man of devout faith. I have accomplish several businesses over the past 24 years, Lily of the Valley LLC a licensed 6400 regulation group home for individuals with IDD/Autism, Tobs Touch LLC a painting company, B.U.Z Academy children daycare, and Safelift Transportation Service Non-Medical Transportation. My focus these past 24 years has been overcoming my past and reshaping my future. I believe my track record the past 2 decades, my ability to avoid the high recidivism that has plagued convicted felons and my ability to be gainfully employed, proves my growth. I am a dedicated family man. My focus now is building a business my children can inherit. Building a business that will give my children future opportunity. An opportunity I lacked 24 years ago. I will never excuse my past. I accept full responsibility for my past crimes. But my past does not define me. I appreciate your sincere consideration on this matter. I hope for a fair opportunity to continue building a legacy my children and wife can be proud of.

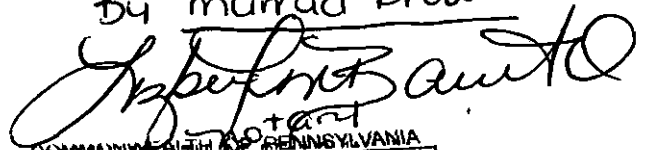

Sincerely,

State of Pennsylvania
County of Montgomery
